BANKS SHOW GAINS DURING PAST YEAR

Increases in Both Deposits and Resources Reflect Improved Business Conditions Here

BANKERS ASSIGN CAUSES

Total Resources of 15 Institutions
$5,829,623.91 and Deposits
Amount to $4,229,465.72

Bank deposits increased nearly a half million dollars in Rush county last year and the increase in bank resources fell only about one hundred thousand dollars short of this, reflecting the general improvement in business during the past year.

Statistics provided by the fifteen financial institutions of the county, which were compiled by the Daily Republican, show the combined bank resources of the county amounted to $5,829,623.91 at the beginning of this year and that the bank deposits of all classes in the county showed a grand total of $4,229,465.72 on the same date.

Deposits of all classes in the fifteen banks, trust companies and building loan associations in the county on January 1, 1922 amounted to $3,777,934.84, thus revealing a gain during the year in deposits amounting to $451,530.88.

The resources of the same fifteen institutions at the beginning of last year amounted to $5,486,985.66, thus revealing a gain in resources during the past year of $342,638.25.

Some bankers say that the gain in deposits was due partially to the converting into cash of government and other securities and Liberty Loan bonds of the Victory issue which fell due December 15, 1922. Other bankers, however, expressed the view that the conversion of securities into cash had a negligible effect in increasing deposits and that the better showing of the banks actually reflects the improved business conditions in the county.

Another banker pointed out that farmers had profited more during the past year than they did the year previously, because the price of hogs held up strong all year. The steadiness of the market, he said, had the effect of giving farmers confidence and causing them to raise more hogs and thus make more money in 1922.

Resources and deposits of the fifteen financial institutions of the county at the beginning of last year and this year follow:

DELVING FURTHER IN STUDENT ORGIES

Oak Park Authorities Continue Inquiry After School Officials Say Trouble is Over

16 STUDENTS ARE SUSPENDED

(By United Press)
Chicago, Jan. 27.—Authorities here delved further into the investigation of high school student orgies today following a statement made by Henry P. Glazer, 16, a senior at Oak Park high school.

Glazer repeated to authorities stories of several of the "petting parties" told to him by "his girl" whose name he refused to mention.

Parents and members of the faculty combined to end the publicity which has threatened to disrupt the school. An official announcement was issued today that "the school was back to normalcy and no further action was anticipated," although it was known that both city and county authorities were continuing the probe.

Sixteen students were suspended following a party at which liquor was alleged to have been served and which ended in the early hours of the morning.

FRENCH SOLDIERS AND GERMANS ARE INJURED

Street Fighting At Treves During Night—Ten Cities In The Ruhr Under Martial Law

CITY OFFICIALS EXPELLED

(By United Press)
Mayence, Jan. 27.—French soldiers and German civilians were wounded in street fighting at Treves during the night.

Martial law was proclaimed and ten city officials were expelled in reprisal for the populace's attitude, which was one of defiance.

To rescue some French soldiers in a street battle, Spahis colonial troops on duty at Treves were forced to charge the crowd.

NOVEMBER TERM COMES TO AN END

Several Matters Occupy Attention of Court as Term Draws to Close Today

DIVORCE SUIT IS FILED

"Too Much Parents-in-law", Charges Mrs. Roxie Gray in Complaint on File

Several court matters held the attention of the court today, as the closing period for the November term, and next week will be vacation, with the February term opening February 5.

Among the new cases filed today was a divorce complaint by Roxie Gray against Wendall Phillips Gray, in which failure to provide is charged. The plaintiff alleges that they were married in January, 1921, and separated July 24, 1922.

The charges that soon after their marriage they resided on a farm near Orange, in Fayette county, and that the defendant's parents, former Judge and Mrs. George Gray of Connersville came to live with them, and that it was "too much parents-in-law". She has been living with her mother, Mrs. Kennedy, in Glenwood, since their separation, and she asks the custody of their small child.

Today in the court, among the several items scheduled to be disposed of, was the divorce hearing of Raymond Caswell against Mary Caswell, Fayette county people. The case was sent here on a change of venue, and several witnesses were summoned.

The Peet Stock Company has brought suit against Howard Kehl on notes, and with the demand at $90. Jacob Hester is the petitioner for

ALLEN GROCERY IS ENTERED THIRD TIME

Nothing Missed From Stock Room, Robbers Being Unable To Reach Main Floor

FORD RADIATOR IS STOLEN

The L. L. Allen grocery store, located at 327 North Main street, was again entered by thieves one night this week, it being the third time in seven weeks. The robbery was not discovered until Friday, but it is believed that the store was entered Wednesday night.

The robbers climbed to the roof of a veranda at the rear and pried open a window on the second floor, but they failed to get access to the main floor on account of a bolted door. So far as could be determined, nothing was missed from the stock room.

Walter Smith, a farmer living southwest of Rushville, reported to the police Friday night that someone had removed his entire radiator from the Ford touring car belonging to him, while it was parked near the high school gymnasium last night. No trace of the stolen part was found today.

FIGHT FOR STREET WILL BE RENEWED

Remonstrance Against Paving Of Harrison And Eighth To Be Heard Next Week

STOPPED ABOUT 2 YEARS AGO

Remonstrators Then Based Objections On Grounds That Road Material Was Excessive

Another hearing will be held under the auspices of the state board of tax commissioners, probably the latter part of next week on the remonstrance against the paving of Harrison and Eighth streets to the point where it meets the present brick street, and thence north to the cement highway known as the Fort Wayne road.

The petition asks for the cementing of Harrison street from First to Eighth streets and of Eighth street from Harrison east to the point where it meets the present brick street, and thence north to the cement highway known as the Fort Wayne road.

The petition was filed two years ago, but was held up by remonstrance of several Rushville township tax payers who objected to the bond issue on the grounds that the cost of road material was excessive because prices were still inflated because of the war.

The remonstrators at that time said that they had no objections to the paved street being constructed but that they believed that it would be to the interest of the taxpayers in the township to delay the awarding of the contract until the price of road material had come down.

John A. Tittsworth, attorney for the petitioners, arranged with Will A. Hough, a member of the state board of tax commissioners, for another hearing on the remonstrance, Friday afternoon, and Mr. Hough tentatively fixed the date as the first, second or third of February, depending upon the wishes of the attorney for the remonstrators. A hearing was set for a few days ago, but could not be held on account of one of the attorneys being busy in another case. Next week will be vacation in the circuit court here and it is not expected that anything else will conflict with the proposed hearing. Gates Ketchum is the attorney for the remonstrators.

The petitioners maintain that Harrison street should be paved so as to provide a hard-surfaced street for farmers entering Rushville with loads of produce or live stock, from the north. At present, in order to travel over a paved street to the stock yards or elevators in the west part of the city, farmers coming in from the north and northeast have to go down the Main or Perkins street hill, which is dangerous when the streets are wet and slick.

Practically every paved street in Rushville was built under the three-mile road law, all of the taxpayers of the township sharing their burden of the expense. The only exception are Third street to the intersection of Buena Vista avenue and one block of cement on the east end of First street and two blocks of cement on the north end of Perkins street.

REVIVAL CLOSES SUNDAY EVENING

The Rev. E. Richard Edwards Will Preach Farewell Sermon at Christian Church

TWO NEW MEMBERS ADDED

Evangelist Satisfactorily Answers Question, "How May I Know I am a Child of God?"

The important question, "How May I Know that I Am a Child of God?" was presented and in the minds of the majority of the hearers satisfactorily solved by the Rev. E. Richard Edwards in his sermon Friday evening at the Main Street Christian church. "With many," he said, "it is merely a matter of assumption without any evidence to substantiate it. With some it is based on their feelings. But the Word of God nowhere states or even hints that a certain class of feelings is the Witness of the Spirit or evidence of divine acceptance. The Holy Spirit testifies in the Word the things that are essential to salvation and when we have complied with the conditions therein stated we have the Witness of the Spirit bearing witness with our spirits that we are the children of God."

It was one of the most logical and convincing sermons yet delivered by this eloquent preacher.

Mrs. Derby Green sang a beautiful solo. There were two additions and four baptisms at the close of the service.

Sunday morning the Rev. Mr. Edwards will speak on "The New Apostolate of Woman" and at the evening hour on "At the Ford of Jabbok." The choir will render an anthem at the morning service and P. W. Oren will sing at the evening hour.

Sunday evening will mark the close of this series of evangelistic meetings. Cole's orchestra will play at the evening hour and the large chorus choir will be present to lead the song service.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR FUNERAL

Members of Rushville Commandery No. 49 K. T. are asked to go to Gwynneville Sunday to form an escort for the funeral of Sir Knight John Jones, which will be held at the church in Gwynneville, at two o'clock.

COLDS PREVALENT IN THIS LOCALITY

Many Cases Hinging on Influenza are Reported but no Cases Have Presented Epidemic Form

SEVERAL PNEUMONIA CASES

People Suffering With Colds Should Not Mingle With Others and Should Consult Physicians

While there are many cases of colds, sore throats, tonsillitis and ear aches in Rushville and Rush county, there is no epidemic of influenza or gripe, according to physicians, who assert that the various forms of sickness, have not taken any serious form.

Some of the local physicians report that there is more sickness and colds now prevalent in the county, than in the city of Rushville.

An epidemic of gripe or influenza, is sweeping many sections of the United States, although pneumonia is not developing as prevalently as it did during the serious influenza epidemic a few years ago. It is believed that Rushville and Rush county have been extremely fortunate thus far and it is believed that a serious epidemic will be averted.

It is said that there is some pneumonia in this locality, principally among children. Most of the adults who have contracted the gripe have had it in a light form and have been able to break it up before more serious ailment developed.

Health officers throughout the country have advised persons suffering from colds to consult their physicians when the first symptoms appear. They say that this is one of the best precautionary measures, for in nearly every case the cold can be broken quickly and a long illness avoided. Headaches and fatigue are usually symptoms of the gripe as it appears this year.

The changing weather is said to be responsible to a large degree for the prevalence of colds this winter. One physician said that people become careless when the weather is warm and that colds are easily contracted when weather conditions change as frequently as they have during the last month. The rains followed by sudden drops in temperature are also favorable for rapid development of colds and the gripe, it is said.

While many people have colds the situation is not even comparable to that during the epidemic of 1918. While the majority of people suffering from the gripe are required to remain indoors for a few days the attack is more easily overcome. Most of those who have suffered with the gripe as it has developed this year say that it leaves them weak and that a considerable period of time is required for them to regain their normal strength.

ADVISES AGAINST MEDDLING ABROAD

George B. Lockwood Speaks at Annual Banquet of Republican Editorial Association

SEN. WATSON ALSO SPEAKER

W. O. Feudner of Daily Republican is Re-elected Secretary of The Association

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—Closer attention to domestic political problems and enjoyment of citizens in a prosperous country, rather than meddling in European affairs, was advocated by George B. Lockwood, formerly of Muncie, who is secretary of the Republican national committee and editor of the National Republican, in an address before the annual banquet of the Indiana Republican Editorial association, at the Claypool hotel here Friday night.

Mr. Lockwood urged the editors to preach optimistic Republicanism and to dwell on the accomplishments of the Harding administration.

George B. Lindsay, publisher of the Marion Chronicle, was elected president of the association yesterday afternoon.

Herbert C. Wills, publisher of the Waterloo Press, who contested the presidency with Mr. Lindsay, was chosen treasurer of the association; George Elliott, of the Newcastle Courier, who served as treasurer for the last year, was promoted to vice president; and Will O. Feudner of the Rushville Republican, was re-elected secretary. Mr. Lindsay, who, with the other officers, serves for one year, succeeds Jess W. Pierce, publisher of the Clinton Clintonian.

The theme of Mr. Lockwood's banquet speech was "Fortunate America", and after referring to the spirit of unrest and pessimism, fostered by demagogues and others, he pointed out that the United States is enjoying better economic conditions than any country in the world, and added that "all the elements are here for the greatest prosperity and progress this nation has ever known."

Besides Mr. Lockwood's speech, the banquet was marked by greetings to the publishers being delivered by Governor McCray, Senator James E. Watson, Albert J. Beveridge, who appeared in person, and written messages from President Harding, Vice President Coolidge and Senator Harry S. New. Mrs. Florence Riddick Boys of Plymouth extended greetings at the banquet.

JOHN E. JONES DIES FOLLOWING OPERATION

Gwynneville Man Well Known Here Succumbs Friday—Knights Templar To Be Escort

MEMBER OF THE COMMANDERY

John E. Jones, age seventy years, died at his home in Gwynneville Friday afternoon of heart trouble and other complications, and the funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon, with the members of Rushville commandery No. 49, Knights Templar, taking part.

The deceased was a member of Rushville commandery and was well known here, not only in Masonic circles, but by many other persons.

He suffered a blood clot in one leg, which necessitated its amputation last Tuesday, and from that time up until his death, his condition was very critical.

The widow is the only survivor.

The funeral will be held at the Gwynneville Christian church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock by the Rev. Mr. Burns of Tipton, formerly of Arlington, assisted by the pastor of the Gwynneville church. The Morristown Blue lodge of Masons will be in charge of the service. Members of Rushville commandery, Knights Templar, will act as escorts. They will go from here in automobiles. Burial will take place in the Morristown cemetery. A delegation of Greenfield Knights Templar members will attend.

Weekly Marketgram

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Washington, D. C. (For week ending January 26, 1923)

LIVESTOCK AND MEATS—Chicago hog prices ranged from 15 to 25c lower for the week. Beef steers steady to 15c lower, butcher cows and heifers steady to 10c and veal calves steady to 50c up with feeder steers unchanged. Fat lambs yearlings and fat ewes steady with a week ago while feeding lambs were 15 to 25c higher.

On Jan. 26 hogs opened slow, closed strong to 10c higher than Thursday's average; beef steers fully steady, butcher cows and heifers strong to 15c up; spots 25c up on heifers, other classes about steady; veal calves 25c lower. Fat sheep and lambs about steady.

Jan. 26 Chicago prices: Hogs, top, $8.35; bulk of sales $7.75-$8.20; medium and good beef steers $7.75-$10.85; butcher cows and heifers $3.75-$10.25; feeder steers $6.25-$8; light and medium weight veal calves $8.25-$12; fat lambs $13-15; feeding lambs $13-$15; yearlings $9.25-$13; fat ewes $5-$8.

Stock and feeder shipments from 12 important markets during the week ending Jan. 26 were: Cattle and calves 61,093; hogs 11,924; sheep 28,457.

In Eastern wholesale fresh meat markets beef, veal, mutton and lambs ranged from weak to $2 lower light pork loins generally $1 lower and heavy loins 50c higher for the week.

On Jan. 26 beef and veal weak to steady; lambs $1 to 2 lower at Philadelphia weak elsewhere; mutton weak at New York, steady elsewhere; pork weak at New York and Philadelphia to 50c lower at Boston.

Jan. 26 prices good grade meats: beef $12.50-$16; veal $17-20; lamb $22-25; mutton $13-$15; light pork loins $15-$17; heavy loins $12.50-$14.

GRAIN—Grain prices show net declines for the week; Chicago May wheat down 1c; Chicago May corn down 1c. Prices firm early in week but weakened on foreign political news, lower Liverpool prices, and increase in visible supply.

Wheat market featureless on the 26th but buying on breaks prevented material declines; short covering late in session. Export demand slow. Corn prices followed changes in wheat.

Closing prices in Chicago cash market: No. 2 red winter wheat $1.30; No. 2 hard winter wheat 1.16; No. 2 mixed corn 72c; No. 2 yellow corn 71c; No. 3 white oats 43c. Average farm prices: No. 2 mixed corn in Central Iowa 50c; No. 2 hard winter wheat in Central Kansas $1. Closing future prices: Chicago May wheat $1.17; Chicago May corn 72c; Minneapolis May wheat $1.17; Kansas City May wheat $1.09; Winnipeg May wheat $1.12.

HAY—Lighter receipts strengthened hay markets in central west. Eastern markets steady at unchanged prices. Southern demand slightly improved. Alfalfa firm on light movement, and diminishing supplies. Quoted January 26—No. 1 timothy N. Y. $23.50, Phila. $23, Pittsburgh $19.50, Cincinnati $17.25, Chicago $21, Minneapolis $16.50, St. Louis $20, Kansas City $15.75. No. 1 alfalfa: Kansas City $23, No. 1 prairie Kansas City $13.50, St. Louis $17.50, Minneapolis $15.50.

FEED—Markets continue quiet. Cottonseed prices reduced 50c per ton but reduction failed to stimulate demand. Linseed meal and wheat feeds particularly in western markets display easier tendency. Gluten feed prices firm, offerings light, demand dull. Hominy feed quoted 50c lower, offerings increasing, demand light. Mild weather reduced consumptive demand and stocks are accumulating. Flour mills soliciting orders for January-March as well as prompt shipment storage stocks and supplies in dealers hands are rather large for this season. Receipts and movement fair. Quoted Jan. 26—bran $26.50; middlings $26.50; flour middlings $29; rye middlings $25.50 Minneapolis; white hominy feed $30 St. Louis, $31 Chicago; 34 percent linseed meal $52.75 Minneapolis, $51.75 Buffalo; gluten feed $42.65 Chicago; 36 percent cottonseed meal $41.50 Memphis, $42.50 Atlanta.

COTTON—Spot cotton prices declined 10 points during the week. New York March future contracts decline 45 points.

Spot cotton closed at 27.84c per lb. New York March futures at 27.75c.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES—Potatoes steady to firm in city markets for the week; slightly weaker at northern shipping points. Apples generally steady. Sweet potatoes show weak tone. Cabbage market strong. Celery and spinach weaker in Eastern cities, firm in midwestern, lettuce declining.

Prices reported Jan. 26, New York sacked round white potatoes $1.35-$1.45 per 100 lbs in Eastern markets, $1.05-$1.10 fob shipping points. Maine bulk stock $1.65 to $1.75 in New York City. Northern sacked round whites, 80c-$1.10 in Chicago and other midwestern cities, 60c-68c fob New York Baldwin apples $4.50-5 per bbl in consuming centers, $4.25 fob shipping points. Northwestern extra fancy boxed wineaps $2.25-$2.50 in New York and Chicago, $1.50 fob. New Jersey and Delaware yellow sweet potatoes 65c-$1.50 per bu hamper in Eastern markets, Tennessee and Ark. Nancy hails 90c-$1.05 in the middle west. New York and northern danish type cabbage $25-$35 per ton in leading markets, $18-$20 fob Florida pointed 1 1/2 bu hampers $2.50-$3 in Eastern cities. Florida head lettuce in 1 1/2 bu hampers $2.25-$3.25 in leading markets. California iceberg stock $3.75-$4.50 per crate, $2.10-$2.25 fob. Texas spinach in bu baskets $1.25-$1.65. Virginia stock in bbls $2.50-$3 in consuming markets. Florida celery in crates of 4-6 doz stalks $2.25-$3.25 in leading cities, $1.75-$2 fob California stock $5.50-$7.50 per California crate in city markets.

DAIRY PRODUCTS—Butter markets steady. Heavy receipts, light demand and resulting slow movement caused material price reductions during week. Little interest in foreign butter under present conditions.

Closing prices, 92 score butter: New York and Phila 50c; Boston 51c; Chicago 48 1/2c.

Cheese markets lately steady. Buying fairly heavy early in week but withdrawal of support by some interests during middle of week served to remove strength. Cheese prices at Wisconsin primary markets Jan. 25: twins 26 1/2c; dairies 27c; longhorns 27 1/2c; square prints 28 1/2c.

Sidney—Three hunters dug a trench four feet deep and thirty feet long to catch a twenty-seven pound badger which put up a hard fight.

Mayor Thompson of Chicago Declines To Aspire For Office Again

Chicago, Jan. 27.—William Hale Thompson, for eight years Republican mayor of Chicago, announced today that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

In the statement announcing his withdrawal from the race Thompson declared that eight years was long enough for one to be mayor, and that he needed a rest.

Thompson said he would be an active participant in the coming campaign "on the principles for which I stand," but declared he would have no candidate of his own.

A BUTCHER'S BILL 4,000 YEARS OLD

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 27.—The history department of Franklin and Marshall Academy has acquired five Babylonian tablets more than 4,000 years old. The tablets were found in Jokha, the ruin of the ancient city of Umma, by Professor Edward James Banks of the University of Chicago and presented to Dr. E. M. Hartman, principal of Franklin and Marshall.

Tax lists and temple offerings dated about 2,000 B. C. are inscribed on the tablets. One inscription has been deciphered as a butcher's bill for "one large fat kid, two lambs, and two sheep, killed for market."

The expense account of a temple messenger collected for oil, dates, wine, bread and meat.

100 WAYS To Make Money

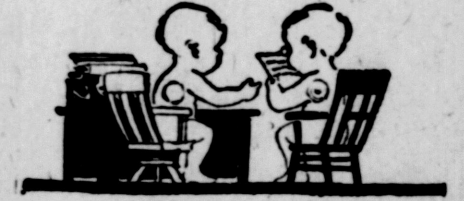

By BILLY WINNER

If I Could Type—

THERE would be business men, authors, or students, who would want typing done outside of regular hours—urgent work to be done without delay.

I would have this work brought to me. Through The Daily Republican Want Ads I would tell the men and women of Rushville how well I could type. Soon I would be a sort of community secretary—a public stenographer in my home. There would be a good profit in this.

I would insert my Want Ad in The Daily Republican at once, and keep it there. I would get steady customers from the beginning and others from day to day.

LOVE NOT THE WORLD:
Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.—1 John 2:15.

Film Stars and Salaries

What the stars of the moving picture comedies, dramas and tragedies do with their lofty salaries is a question that frequently recurs to the mind of the movie fan, who reads of the vast sums that are paid to those who have gained fame in the silent art.

The topic has been under discussion recently on account of the reported contract that Jackie Coogan signed for an original outlay of a half million dollars in addition to royalties. Jackie, it is said, although eight years of age, is beginning to lay up a nest egg and now owns an $80,000 home.

The case of the late Wallace Reid is particularly pathetic. Possessed of good health and popularity among followers of the silver screen that was excelled by few other actors or actresses, he is said to have dashed debonairly through a merry career without saving much of anything. He put up a brave battle against odds that were too great even for his strong physique and paid the penalty for forming a habit that could not be broken.

The Photoplay magazine is authority for the statement that most of the film favorites have laid by a tidy sum and that they are not the luxurious spendthrifts that they are supposed to be. It is said that Richard Barthelmess inspects a restaurant check with such care that the shades of his frugal dutch ancestors must chuckle with particular glee, and that Rex Ingram, the noted director, indulges in nothing more than a Ford. He is reputed to have made a half million last year and he is building up a bank account, along with his wife, Alice Terry, who also banks her salary every week while Rex pays the household bills.

Other examples of thriftiness among screen stars are cited. Harold Lloyd infrequently rides in any sort of a motor car and Mary Pickford shops as carefully as the most salary-bound day laborer's wife. Lillian and Dorothy Gish, for example, have never had but 2 automobiles in all their careers in moving pictures, although they draw $300 a week interest on their savings. And Lillian owns a restaurant in San Pedro, Calif.

CONGRESSMAN DICK ELLIOTT VOTES

WAS CONGRESS EMBARRASSED

When a flock of pretty girls headed by Mayor Harley of Astoria, Oregon, besieged the National Capitol and asked Congressmen to vote truthfully on whether or not they believed in the Eighteenth Amendment? The polling is being conducted by the National Liberal Alliance and will be carried out through the United States. Photo shows (left to right): Miss Clara Worth, Miss Irene Bryant, Rep. R. N. Elliott, of Indiana; Rep. John P. Hill, of Maryland, and Miss Katherine Lewis. These three girls are the most active workers in the polling campaign.

Mary Pickford is said to be the richest of all this class which has been drawing such fabulous sums, with Cecil de Mille, Charlie Chaplin, Norma Talmadge, Mary Miles Minter, Anita Stewart and Harold Lloyd close behind in spectacular savings.

David Ward Griffith, producer of "The Birth of a Nation" and other screen masterpieces, possesses fourteen-acre lemon ranch, and that is the extent of his savings.

Gloria Swanson has practically paid for a $90,000 California residence. Mabel Normand's savings consist of a half million in jewels. Recently she purchased a home for her parents on Staten Island. Priscilla Dean owns a house that is valued at $85,000.

William Farnum's wealth is prodigious. His fortune is invested in real estate in California and the East and amounts to about a million. His private estate is located at Sag Harbor, Long Island. Mr. Farnum's hobby is boating and he owns seven boats, ranging from a yacht to a motor launch.

Bill Hart has a $60,000 Hollywood house and a ranch at Newhall, California, near Carey's property. He also owns some valuable property in Connecticut.

Louisa Fazenda owns considerable California real estate and has some valuable oil holdings.

William Russell owns Hepner's beauty parlor in Los Angeles.

Mary Pickford has over $1,500,000 in Liberty and government bonds.

Charlie Chaplin is close behind Miss Pickford in securities.

Cecil de Mille has made a tremendous fortune from oil speculation alone.

Mary Miles Minter has $750,000

in gold notes, mortgages and bonds alone and owns a restaurant in Hollywood.

Anita Stewart has a startling sum in Liberty bonds and owns 4,000 acres of rich oil lands.

Norma Talmadge has close to a million in bonds and stocks in her own name.

"AND THIS WON'T COST TAYPAYERS A CENT(?)"

(Cartoon by Courtesy Hoosier State Auto Ass'n. State Headquarters, Claypool Hotel, Indianapolis.)

NEW TAXES TO REPLACE PRESENT TAXES MAKE NO MORE GOOD ROADS

The above cartoon drawn by "Chic" Jackson is said to indicate some of the things "they are going to do next" to the owners of motor vehicles. It also is alleged to represent some of the things "They" have already done.

"The Hoosier State Automobile Association asserts it stands for more money for the Highway Commission sufficient to take care of its increased mileage program and secure Indiana's portion of Federal Aid. The figures of the Highway Commission, they assert, show that not more than $1,500,000 over the present income is necessary to take care of this program, providing the present small state tax levy and inheritance fund is allowed to continue in the Highway Commission road fund along with the automobile license fees. The Automobile Association asserts that Indiana's license fees are a little lower than the average in other states and that the $1,500,000 more road funds should be raised through a small increase in all license fees which can be collected without another dollar of cost.

It is pointed out that the proposed 2 cents gasoline tax and 100 per cent increase in license fees is only a plan to raise more money and while this money would go to the state and possibly some to the county road funds, it would be to replace money now in those road funds and that the motoring public is being asked to support a tremendous tax increase program under the guise of it being for more good roads, while the matter of fact it is not for an increased road program other than a possible increase of 1,000,000 to $1,500,000 in the State Highway Commission road fund.

The association asserts further that the taxing of gasoline as commodity, cannot legally be done under the Indiana constitution and that if it could be collected there would be a lot of new jobs created and a large collection cost which would not build any roads or even replace other funds. Not only has it been proposed to put on a gasoline tax for good roads(?), but it is declared one member of the legislature has proposed another one cent tax on gasoline to provide for one thousand watchmen at grade crossings, stating that such a plan would not cost the tax payer a cent. Last year will be remembered that a bill was introduced to put a tax on gasoline to be used for the propagation of fish and bees and other interests of the Conservation Commission. The automobile association maintains that a personal property tax, a federal tax of five per cent on cars, accessories, and repair parts, and a license fee tax, making three taxes in all, is enough, and that the majority of states have no personal property tax on automobiles.

Safety Sam's Sermonette

S' wonderful, when you come t' think about it, th' good these Christmas Clubs do. They've been a Godsend t' thousands o' people who usta go through life without ever dreamin' o' savin' anything for a rainy day but a leaky umbrella; an' lot o' them not that much. People have got started t' savin' money by keepin' up their payments in the Clubs that never woulda had an iron man t' their names. An' 'tain't long, either, before some o' 'em are right in th' capitalist class, ready t' c'nsider buyin' a bond or two or a little stock, mebke, or find themselves in shape to make th' first payment on a — you thought I was goin' to say a home, didn't you? Well, hardly. In these days of absolute necessity for somethin' t' furnish a ready topic o' conversation at family gatherin's an' such like, one that's never liable t' be exhausted, th' thing that takes th' cake an' stands in a class by itself is th' little o' wagon that Elwood Haynes invented an' a certain gent in Detroit makes quite a speck o' money out of.

If it wasn't for their Christmas clubs, how would some people ever manage a look-in on th' raptures o' th' flivver game? How'd they ever get t' experience th' wonderful thrill o' tryin' t' beat street cars an' trains to it an' losin' by th' breadth of a baby knat's eyelash?

I guess they figger, why should they pay out good money for a home when they aint liable t' live th' year through anyway. Nothin' harder for some people than gettin' started payin' on a home, unless it's slowin' down an' bein' careful at short turns an' crossin's.

SOCIETY

The Coterie club will be entertained Monday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock by Mrs. R. C. Hargrove at her home in West Seventh street.

Mrs. Ray Compton was hostess to the members of the Tarry-A-While club Friday afternoon at her home in West Fourth street. The Ladies enjoyed the afternoon informally with music and a short program was given. At the close of the evening the hostess served her guests with dainty refreshments.

Following the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge meeting Friday evening in their lodge rooms in West Second street, a social hour was held. The social committee had charge of the program which consisted of songs, recitations and readings. Light refreshments were also served at the close of the meeting.

The members of the Missionary Society of the Main street Christian church are especially urged to be present in the service Sunday morning when the Rev. E. Richards will preach on "The New Apostolate of Women." The envelopes containing the Woman's Missionary Day offering will be received at this service.

OBITUARY

The air is full of farewells to the dying.
And mourning for the dead;
The heart of Rachel, for her children crying,
Will not be comforted.

Let us be patient. These severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise;
But oftentimes celestial benedictions
Assume this dark disguise.

In that great cloister's pure and holy stillness,
By guardian angels led;
Safe from temptations, safe from sin's pollution,
She lives whom we call dead.

The book of another human life has closed and again we are called together to pay our last tribute of respect. Though the call came not in prattling childhood nor in the charm of youth, the allotted time was but a span in which to enjoy life's alluring charms and to solve its sometimes difficult problems.

Theodosia B. Guffin, youngest child of Andrew and Clara Guffin, was born Nov. 2, 1879 in the Little Flatrock community, Rush County, Indiana, in which County she spent her entire life. She was married to Claude B. Hunt, March 20, 1898. To this union three daughters were born who live to mourn the loss of both parents. They are Mrs. Marjorie Bell, and Georgia and Wilna Hunt. Besides the daughters there are four brothers, four sisters, a number of other relatives and many friends to hold in memory the power of her friendship.

She made the Good Confession early in life and became a member of the Little Flatrock Christian Church. Later, with her husband she moved her membership to the Ben Davis Creek Christian Church, where she was an active worker until ill health and removal from the community prevented her regular attendance at the church services. At the latter place she served as President of the local society of C. W. B. M. for a period of two years.

She waited upon her husband very bravely and patiently during his last sickness and death but was left too exhausted to withstand the ravages of her own disease and after many weeks of intense suffering she responded to the summons of the Angel of Death Jan. 20, 1923.

"O, the hallowed name of mother;
How we miss it o'er and o'er,
While we're drifting in time's ocean,
Drifting toward the golden shore.
In the Christian's home in glory,
Out across death's silent goal—
We shall meet her—we shall greet her—
In the homeland of the soul."

Shiek Haircuts Passing

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 26.—Shieks of the desert of Indiana who wish to continue in favor with their fair ladies will have to abandon sideburns and take up a new style which is soon to be dictated by fashion directors, an Indianapolis barber said today.

"Shiek haircuts are just like everything else," he said.

"They are disappearing gradually. Some will keep them and some won't."

Haircut styles change as other styles change, he said.

AMUSEMENTS

At The Princess Today

Because she thought she had lost everything in life worth living for Alice Lambert was ready to sign away her life. It didn't matter how soon she died; anything was better than the existence of want, poverty and squallor she had gone through in four months. Her guardian had never trained her in any useful occupation and when the thunderbolt struck her she was as helpless as a flimsy shingle.

She couldn't earn her living at any useful occupation; and in the myriad ways of artists' studios and dressmaking shops she had no experience in fighting off unwelcome attentions. Life really didn't matter, so she signed the agreement because there was to be six months of unalloyed bliss before the time came to pay.

This is the situation the screen unfolds in "Her Mad Bargain," the new Louis Mayer-First National attraction starring Anita Stewart showing at the Princess today. The story is unusually full of action and tense interest, with a new idea worked through curving channels to a surpassing conclusion.

Alice Lambert, the leading character, has the problem outlined above to face and she solves the situation in her own way. Life, with all the luxury she has been accustomed to is the only thing that matters; but the awakening comes before it is too late.

Anita Stewart has never been more attractive than in her present role. There is a refreshing influence in her style of acting and it is enhanced in its present surroundings of limousines, chiffons, furs, silks and satins.

Walter McGrail as leading man heads a capable cast. The picture was directed by Edwin Carewe.

Little Theatre

"Tamar"

"Tamar," a ballet adapted from the Russian poem "The Demon" by Lermontow will be the third number on the second bill of the Little Theatre next Monday night at the Princess. The story from which it is taken is an old Russian legend and has been used many times in its native country both as a ballet and as an opera. Two of that country's greatest composers have written music to its story. Balakirev composed the score of the version presented by the Ballet Russe on its tour of America and Rubenstein has made it the basis of one of his most famous operas, "The Demon." In the latter form it will be presented by the Russian Grand Opera Company at the Murat next Wednesday.

For its presentation here Raymond Gregg has taken the original poem and made from it an adaptation which is most suited to a more or less limited production. The effects obtained are very startling considering the small investment incurred. The limitations of an amateur production are sometimes an incentive study of the life and color of stage groupings so that the result is more artistic than a generally gaudy or over pretentious effect that always comes with unlimited means.

The ones who have worked together on the production have put their very best efforts into it. Charlotte Norris has been particularly valuable with her rare musical talent, but besides that has given much of her time to many other details. Miss Lura Straton, who conducts dancing classes here every week, has devoted many extra hours with her pupils in preparing their dances, and has besides consented to appear as the solo dancer. Miss Straton's home is in Newcastle and she has classes there also. The community is indeed very fortunate to have so talented a dancer doing such a beneficial work among the children and younger girls.

COOKING SCHOOL NEXT WEEK

Will Be Conducted In The Modern Woodman Hall Here

A free cooking school will be held at the Modern Woodman hall all next week, beginning Monday and continuing through Saturday, under the auspices of the Rush County Mills. Women of Rush county are urgently requested to attend and witness the demonstrations in the baking of bread, cake and pie crusts, and the making of the salads and the salad dressings. No wto make a tough steak tender will also be demonstrated.

Mrs. Lulu T. Silvernail, a national authority on cooking who has had a wide experience as a lecturer and cooking school instructor, will be in charge of the school. Free souvenirs will be given to all who attend the first day.

IN MEMORIAM

The air is full of farewells to the dying
And mourning for the dead:
The heart of Rachel, for her children crying,
Will not be comforted.

Let us be patient. These severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise;
But oftentimes celestial benedictions
Assume this dark disguise.

In that great cloisters pure and holy stillness,
By guardian angels led;
Safe from temptations, safe from sin's pollution,
He lives whom we call dead.

The book of another human life has closed and we are again called together to pay our last tribute of respect. The autumn of this life followed close upon its springtime. However 'tis but a span from the cradle to the grave, whether called in the prime of life with its alluring charms, or in the days that are ripe with age, when the head has become silvered with gray.

Claude Benjamin Hunt, son of George W. and Sarah Frances Hunt, was born May 15, 1875 in Rush County, Indiana, in which county he spent the whole of his life. He chose as his bosom companion Theodosia Guffin, whom he married March 20, 1898, and to this union three daughters were born, Marjorie Ellen, Georgia Lucile, and Wilna Lanore, each of whom yet live. His wife, for whom he had a boundless devotion, also remains to mourn his departure. In addition to these his mother, bowed down with grief as she walks through the valley of the shadow of death, three brothers, Ray of St. Louis, Blaine of Indianapolis, and Sidney L. of Rushville, three sisters, Mrs. Sallie Stem and Mrs. Blanche Walls, of Knightstown, and Mrs. Inez Morris, of near Ben Davis Creek, Rush Co., many other relatives and a multitude of friends live to hold in memory the magnetic power of his friendship.

He confessed his faith in Christ as the Son of God at the Little Flat Rock Christian Church about the year 1896. In June 1915 he placed his membership with the Christian Church at Ben Davis Creek, and there he was active in the work of his Master as long as his health and strength would permit. He served as Sunday School Superintendent for a period and was later elected to the eldership but due to ill health was never enabled to actively serve in that capacity. Faith in the Saviour was to him an anchor sure and steadfast. He departed this life June 5, 1922.

If we listen we can hear the echoes from a life well lived and a work well done. He needs no words of eulogy, the record of his life has been well written. To those who are in sorrow may there be the assurance and comfort in the One who has promised never to leave you; weep not as those who have no hope.

Lift thee, pale mourner; God, with pity tender,
Bends down to thy low cry;
He is thy keeper, He is thy defender,
He guards with sleepless eye.
The smiling world may cruelly deceive thee,
And thy poor heart may break,
But He will never, never leave thee,
And never thee forsake.

Thou cyprees-wreathed, no more mid shadows linger,
Far from the realms of day;
Thy Heavenly Father points with love's own finger,
The upward shining way;
Love unpaid, Hope unfulfilled may grieve thee,
Thine Idols all may break,
But He will never, never leave thee,
And never thee forsake.

IMPROVEMENTS AT WINONA

Winona Lake, Ind., Jan. 26.—Extensive improvements will be made at Winona Lake, seat of the Winona Assembly and Bible School, it became known today. A pavement will be laid through the park and surrounding it. It is also planned to construct a $25,000 archway at the park entrance.

CAUGHT IN FLY WHEEL

Ligonier, Ind., Jan. 26.—Joseph Hyde, 5, is recovering from serious injuries sustained when he was caught in the fly wheel of a gas engine which whirled him through the air at many revolutions a minute. The boy had a miraculous escape from death, the attending physician said.

It Pays to Advertise

THAT'S a recognized fact today. But bear this in mind: the only reason it pays to advertise is that millions of thrifty folks find it a paying proposition to be guided by the advertisements. If you will read advertisements consistently for a while you'll readily agree that this statement is true.

It will pay you in money saved. Real bargains are offered frequently in the advertisements that appear in this paper. Watch for them. Take advantage of them.

It will pay you in time saved. It tells you exactly when and where to go for what you want to buy. You don't have to waste time and effort "shopping around." If your time is worth money, advertising will pay you.

It will pay you in added satisfaction. Every time a merchant or manufacturer advertises he obligates himself to sell you goods that are as advertised. Read the advertisements and be sure you get your money's worth.

Reading the advertisements is a plain every-day business proposition. It is a duty you owe yourself and your pocketbook.

Read the advertisements.

PRISON FOR WOMEN IS RUN BY WOMEN

Alabama Takes First Steps In Prison Reform By Providing Institution Strictly Modern

OLD BUILDING RENOVATED

Structure Has Been Renewed And Women Will Have Complete Charge Over Female Inmates

(By United Press)

Montgomery, Ala. Jan. 27.—A penal institution for women, offered throughout by women, will be Alabama's 1923 contribution toward the furtherance of prison reforms in the United States.

Under the direction of former Governor Thomas F. Kilby, an old penal building at Wetumka, one of the first buildings of Alabama's old penal system has been renovated and fitted out as the woman's prison.

The building will be modern throughout. The old narrow, dark, brick-lined cells in which women prisoners were formerly isolated at night, have been abolished. Not a brick is to be found on the inside of the jail. The old whipping post which stood at the entrance of the dungeon room and the dungeon room itself has been abolished. Several thousand dollars has been spent in renovating the prison.

Mrs. Sarah E. Kirkpatrick, who has been engaged in work among women prisoners in Alabama for years, will be the superintendent. The only two male officials who have anything to do with the administration of affairs in the building will be deputy warden, whose duties are outside the walls, and the prison physician.

A modern prison bakery a clothing factory, where the women convicts will make prison uniforms, and a complete prison kitchen will make the penitentiary practically self-supporting.

TO PRESERVE JAIL AS LAND MARK OF FAME

New Jail of Brick Veneer to be Built to Take Place of Historic Brown County Jail

TO CONTAIN THREE CELLS

Nashville, Ind., Jan. 27.—The historic Brown county jail will be preserved as landmark of Brown county fame, officials have decided.

The old log structure will not be used to house law violators much longer.

A new jail of brick veneer and a bungalow residence for the sheriff will be built. The new jail will contain only three cells because there is little use for them here.

Two walls of logs laid horizontally and reinforced by a third wall of logs in between in vertical position formed the barricade against which prisoners were permitted to beat in futile efforts to escape.

FUED PRECEDED IN BUILDING OF CITY

Historian At Gary Recalls Fights Held On Sand Dunes Over Shooting Of Wild Game

NATIVES WERE REBUKED

Chicago Hunters Caused Much Trouble In The "Dark And Bloody Land Of The Calumet"

Gary, Ind., Jan. 27.—Out of the jungles of Gary steel mills which spring up on the sand dunes of the Calumet today came a story of a feud which had its inception in an argument over the killing of wild ducks in the sand dunes and marshes upon which the "Magic City" continues its industrial growth.

In the jungles of marsh and dunes there was an abundance of mallards, canvas-backs, pin-tails, blue wing teals and occasional swan and once a pelican before the smoke of steel mills drove them away and the nightly glare from the blast furnaces obscured the stars and moon.

This abundance of game was the cause of feud half a century ago according to J. William Lester member of the Gary Historical Society who is recording the events in Lake county history.

A number of wealthy men came down from Chicago and formed the Tolleson Gun Club, Lester said. They laid out game reservations, and kept out the earlier settlers and farmers, hunters, trappers, long accustomed to the freedom of the wilderness.

The intrusion was bitterly resented and there came a time when guns were loaded and deadly ambush resulted in bloodshed. The hostilities and frequent battles continued until surveys laid out the land where the mills belch forth their smoke. It was called "the dark and bloody land of the Calumet."

"Game wardens were employed by the club," said Mr. Lester. They kept off the trespassers and the battle—for the encounters deserve the name—which took place between them and the natives kept the coroners surgeons and courts busy ever since the first Chicago millionaire shot his first mallard in an Indiana marsh.

But the marsh land with the blood stains of its pioneers is still being reclaimed to make way for more industries and there is talk that Gary will some day be the largest city west of New York.

Engineers are working on a plan now to deepen the channels of the Calumet river to reclaim great tracts and thereby write the last chapter of hunting in the famous Calumet.

ATTENTION, PLEASE!

Mrs. Lulu Silvernail, nationally known lecturer and cooking school instructor, will conduct a FREE COOKING SCHOOL in the Modern Woodmen Hall, beginning Monday, January 29th, and ending Saturday, February 3rd.

Monday, January 29th to Saturday, February 3rd, Inclusive

This wonderful course is open to each and every lady, free of charge. Enroll as a member the first day so as not to miss the hundreds of practical recipes that will be given out, demonstrated and lectured on by Mrs. Lulu Silvernail in person. To each lady attending (the first day only) will be given a souvenir, and articles baked during the course will be distributed among those attending. Classes will be conducted from two until five each afternoon daily and the program of the course in part is as follows:

MONDAY

Quick breads of various kinds will be demonstrated. Both sweet and sour milk biscuits baked and served. Instructions in deep fat frying given. Fried cakes and fritters served to all.

Please do not forget that souvenirs are to be given to each lady attending on the first day.

TUESDAY

Articles made from yeast will be featured. The quick method of bread making, which requires no sponge setting or kneading, will be demonstrated. No more failures or disappointments on bread baking days. Fancy rolls, coffee cakes and caramel nut rolls will be made, baked and given away.

WEDNESDAY

Do you have difficulty in making perfect boiled icing? See the "Jiffy Icing" made in 5 minutes. Instructions in all kinds of cake making, which insures against failure. Are your Angel Foods as you want them? See the Angel Food demonstration and get the "Pollyanna" cake recipe. Valuable hints and instructions.

THURSDAY

Have you see a double-decked pie? Is your meringue high and tender? Does the juice ooze out of the pie into the oven? Is your pastry flaky? See the double-decked pies made, learn how to make perfect ice water meringue, see the juice stay in the pie while it is cooking and watch the pie crust made that crumbles in flakes.

FRIDAY

Salad, salad dressing. This is sufficient to interest women. Delicious salad dressings and numerous kinds of salads will be the entertainment for the day. Get the "Thousand Island Dressing" recipe and if it does not suit the "Thousand and One Island Dressing" will.

Invite your friends to these demonstrations.

SATURDAY

If you have attended previous sessions you will be present on this day. Can you make a tough steak tender? A general talk on meats will be made and many miscellaneous demonstrations will feature the day.

Invite your friends to these demonstrations.

ARISTOS, a hard wheat short patent flour of the highest quality, will be used exclusively in all demonstration work throughout this course.

BUILDING FIRST RIGID AIRSHIP

Within Largest Single Room in World America's First ZR-1 Is Now Under Construction

FOUNDATION OF SUCCESS

Construction Of One Single Room Was One Of Problems To Be Solved By Engineers

Washington, Jan. 27.—Within the largest single room in the world—the hangar built by the United States Navy at the Naval Air Station at Lakehurst, N. J.—America's first large "home-built" rigid airship, the ZR-1, is now under construction.

Lessons learned from European builders, augmented by those gained through its own experiences, have enabled the Navy Department to plan and start construction on its first Zeppelin type airships, which, the department believes, will be the foundation for the nation's future success in commercial and naval aviation.

Several years have been required for equipment and construction of the plant, before work on the big ship could begin. Construction of one single room, with a clear floor space of 804 feet by 264 feet and 192 feet in height, was one of the problems to be solved by engineers before work on the ship itself could be begun.

The building, now completed is a unit in one of the most complete naval air stations in the world. To this station America will look for most of her future development in lighter than air construction and maintenance.

The magnitude of the building is hard to grasp without comparison, but when the department announced that on a mezzanine floor, skirting the edges of the big room, there is space for gas bag storage room, a large cafeteria and a kitchen supplied with all electrical and steam cooking conveniences; that under this floor are riggers shops, balloon shops, wood shops, metal shops and machine shops, all equipped with the most modern machinery for repairs of air ships, the size of the great chamber is more easily comprehended.

Doors and windows of the big shed are all operated electrically. The doors, each weighing 1,350 tons, can be closed by hand at the rate of 8 feet per minute, or by power at 20 feet per minute. The windows necessarily high from the ground are closed and opened by push buttons making ventilation easily controlled. Great banks of flood lights line the walls for lighting the interior of the shed at night, while the exterior is equipped with target lights and search lights for night landing.

Another feature of the station required for handling the big ship, is a tower 164 feet high and resembling the famous Eiffel Tower of Paris. The nose of the ship will be moored to this tower, making it possible to use the hangar for construction and repair of other ships.

The tower will be supplied with gasoline through electrically driven pumps which will drive it straight to the ship's tanks.

HOMELESS BABIES ARE AT A PREMIUM

Childless "Mothers" Of Chicago Social World Are Scouring Country For Babies To Adopt

DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY

So Great Is The Desire That Many Are Going To New York And Other Cities For Waifs

(By United Press)

Chicago, Jan. 27. — Childless "mothers" of the Chicago social world are scouring the country for homeless waifs to adopt.

The demand for the children of "the doorstep" and the alley," who have been abandoned by their parents or who have no parents, far exceeds the supply, Judge Victor Arnold of the Juvenile Court, told the United Press.

"We have hundreds of requests for children for adoption, some from the prominent families of Chicago," Arnold said. "So great is the desire of the childless mothers for children to satisfy the mother instinct that they are coming to New York and other cities for homeless waifs."

"Most of the families seeking children have been married many years, but have not been blessed with children of their own. The husbands have climbed the ladder of business success. The mothers have established themselves in the social world. But they both find their lives are empty and seek something upon which they can pour their affection and their success."

Recently the fairy wand which has changed the lives of waifs from drab institution walls to luxury and the promise of education was waived by three prominent families here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Heller brought from New York a baby boy whom they named John and made heir to their fortune. Heller is the senior member of the firm of Heller and Rose, diamond merchants.

Walter I. Schiff, banker and manufacturer, and Mrs. Schiff adopted a

BANKS SHOW GAINS DURING PAST YEAR

Increases in Both Deposits and Resources Reflect Improved Business Conditions Here

BANKERS ASSIGN CAUSES

Total Resources of 15 Institutions $5,829,623.91 and Deposits Amount to $4,229,465.72

Bank deposits increased nearly a half million dollars in Rush county last year and the increase in bank resources fell only about one hundred thousand dollars short of this, reflecting the general improvement in business during the past year.

Statistics provided by the fifteen financial institutions of the county, which were compiled by the Daily Republican, show the combined bank resources of the county amounted to $5,829,623.91 at the beginning of this year and that the bank deposits of all classes in the county showed a grand total of $4,229,465.72 on the same date.

Deposits of all classes in the fifteen banks, trust companies and building loan associations in the county on January 1, 1923 amounted to $3,777,934.84, thus revealing a gain during the year in deposits amounting to $451,530.88.

The resources of the same fifteen institutions at the beginning of last year amounted to $5,486,985.06, thus revealing a gain in resources during the past year of $342,638.25.

Some bankers say that the gain in deposits was due partially to the converting into cash of government and other securities and Liberty Loan bonds of the Victory issue which fell due December 15, 1922. Other bankers, however, expressed the view that the conversion of securities into cash had a negligible effect in increasing deposits and that the better showing of the banks actually reflects the improved business conditions in the county.

Another banker pointed out that farmers had profited more during the past year than they did the year previously, because the price of hogs held up strong all year. The steadiness of the market, he said, had the effect of giving farmers confidence and causing them to raise more hogs and thus make more money in 1922.

DELVING FURTHER IN STUDENT ORGIES

Oak Park Authorities Continue Inquiry After School Officials Say Trouble is Over

16 STUDENTS ARE SUSPENDED

(By United Press)
Chicago, Jan. 27—Authorities here delved further into the investigation of high school student orgies today following a statement made by Henry P. Glazer, 16, a senior at Oak Park high school.

Glazer repeated to authorities stories of several of the "petting parties" told to him by "his girl" whose name he refused to mention. Parents and members of the faculty combined to end the publicity which has threatened to disrupt the school. An official announcement was issued today that "the school was back to normalcy and no further action was anticipated," although it was known that both city and county authorities were continuing the probe.

Sixteen students were suspended following a party at which liquor was alleged to have been served and which ended in the early hours of the morning.

CITY OFFICIALS EXPELLED

(By United Press)
Mayence, Jan. 27.—French soldiers and German civilians were wounded in street fighting at Treves during the night.

Martial law was proclaimed and ten city officials were expelled in reprisal for the populace's attitude, which was one of defiance.

To rescue some French soldiers in a street battle, Spahis colonial troops on duty at Treves were forced to charge the crowd.

NOVEMBER TERM COMES TO AN END

Several Matters Occupy Attention of Court as Term Draws to Close Today

DIVORCE SUIT IS FILED

"Too Much Parents-in-law", Charges Mrs. Roxie Gray in Complaint on File

Several court matters held the attention of the court today, as the closing period for the November term, and next week will be vacation, with the February term opening February 5.

Among the new cases filed today was a divorce complaint by Roxie Gray against Wendall Phillips Gray, in which failure to provide is charged. The plaintiff alleges that they were married in January, 1921, and separated July 24, 1922.

The charges that soon after their marriage they resided on a farm near Orange, in Fayette county, and that the defendant's parents, former Judge and Mrs. George Gray of Connersville came to live with them, and that it was "too much parents-in-law". She has been living with her mother, Mrs. Kennedy, in Glenwood, since their separation, and she asks the custody of their small child.

Today, in the court, among the several items scheduled to be disposed of, was the divorce hearing of Raymond Caswell against Mary Caswell, Fayette county people. The case was sent here on a change of venue, and several witnesses were summoned.

The Peet Stock Company has brought suit against Howard Kehl on notes, and with the demand at $90. Jacob Hester is the petitioner for Continued on Page Six

ALLEN GROCERY IS ENTERED THIRD TIME

FORD RADIATOR IS STOLEN

The L. L. Allen grocery store, located at 327 North Main street, was again entered by thieves one night this week, it being the third time in seven weeks. The robbery was not discovered until Friday, but it is believed that the store was entered Wednesday night.

The robbers climbed to the roof of a veranda at the rear and pried open a window on the second floor, but they failed to get access to the main floor on account of a bolted door. So far as could be determined, nothing was missed from the stock room.

Walter Smith, a farmer living southwest of Rushville, reported to the police Friday night that someone had removed his entire radiator from the Ford touring car belonging to him, while it was parked near the high school gymnasium last night. No trace of the stolen part was found today.

FIGHT FOR STREET WILL BE RENEWED

Remonstrance Against Paving Of Harrison And Eighth To Be Heard Next Week

STOPPED ABOUT 2 YEARS AGO

Remonstrators Then Based Objections On Grounds That Road Material Was Excessive

Another hearing will be held under the auspices of the state board of tax commissioners, probably the latter part of next week on the remonstrance against the paving of Harrison street from First to Eighth streets and of Eighth street from Harrison east to the point where it meets the present brick street, and thence north to the cement highway known as the Fort Wayne road.

The petition asks for the cementing of Harrison street from First to Eighth streets and of Eighth street from Harrison east to the point where it meets the present brick street, and thence north to the cement highway known as the Fort Wayne road. The petition was filed two years ago, but was held up by remonstrance of several Rushville township tax payers who objected to the bond issue on the grounds that the cost of road material was excessive because prices were still inflated because of the war.

The remonstrators at that time said that they had no objections to the paved street being constructed but that they believed that it would be to the interest of the taxpayers in the township to delay the awarding of the contract until the price of road material had come down.

John A. Tisworth, attorney for the petitioners, arranged with Will A. Hough, a member of the state board of tax commissioners, for another hearing on the remonstrance, Friday afternoon, and Mr. Hough tentatively fixed the date as the first, second or third of February, depending upon the wishes of the attorney for the remonstrators. A hearing was set for a few days ago, but could not be held on account of one of the attorneys being busy in another case. Next week will be vacation in the circuit court here and it is not expected that anything else will conflict with the proposed hearing. Gates Ketchum is the attorney for the remonstrators.

The petitioners maintain that Harrison street should be paved so as to provide a hard-surfaced street for farmers entering Rushville with loads of produce or live stock from the north. At present, in order to travel over a paved street to the stock yards or elevators in the west part of the city, farmers coming in from the north and northeast have to go down the Main or Perkins street hill, which is dangerous when the streets are wet and slick.

Practically every paved street in Rushville was built under the three-mile road law, all of the taxpayers of the township sharing their burden of the expense. The only exception are Third street to the intersection of Buena Vista avenue and one block of cement on the east end of First street and two blocks of cement on the north end of Perkins street.

REVIVAL CLOSING SUNDAY EVENING

The Rev. E. Richard Edwards Will Preach Farewell Sermon at Christian Church

TWO NEW MEMBERS ADDED

Evangelist Satisfactorily Answers Question, "How May I Know I am a Child of God?"

The important question, "How May I Know that I Am a Child of God?" was presented and in the minds of the majority of the hearers satisfactorily solved by the Rev. E. Richard Edwards in his sermon Friday evening at the Main Street Christian church. "With many," he said, "it is merely a matter of assumption without any evidence to substantiate it. With some it is based on their feelings. But the Word of God nowhere states or even hints that a certain class of feelings is the Witness of the Spirit or evidence of divine acceptance. The Holy Spirit testifies in the Word the things that are essential to salvation and when we have complied with the conditions therein stated we have the Witness of the Spirit bearing witness with our spirits that we are the children of God."

It was one of the most logical and convincing sermons yet delivered by this eloquent preacher. Mrs. Derby Green sang a beautiful solo. There were two additions and four baptisms at the close of the service.

Sunday morning the Rev. Mr. Edwards will speak on "The New Apostolate of Woman" and at the evening hour on "At the Feet of Jesus." The choir will render an anthem at the morning service and P. W. Oren will sing at the evening hour.

Sunday evening will mark the close of this series of evangelistic meetings. Cole's orchestra will play at the evening hour and the large chorus choir will be present to lead the song service.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR FUNERAL

Members of Rushville Commandery No. 49 K. T. are asked to go to Gwynneville Sunday to form an escort for the funeral of Sir Knight John Jones, which will be held at the church in Gwynneville, at two o'clock.

COLDS PREVALENT IN THIS LOCALITY

Many Cases Hinging on Influenza are Reported but no Cases Have Presented Epidemic Form

SEVERAL PNEUMONIA CASES

People Suffering With Colds Should Not Mingle With Others and Should Consult Physicians

While there are many cases of colds, sore throats, tonsillitis and ear aches in Rushville and Rush county, there is no epidemic of influenza or grippé, according to physicians, who assert that the various forms of sickness have not taken any serious form.

Some of the local physicians report that there is more sickness and colds now prevalent in the county, than in the city of Rushville.

An epidemic of grippé or influenza, is sweeping many sections of the United States, although pneumonia is not developing as prevalently as it did during the serious influenza epidemic a few years ago. It is believed that Rushville and Rush county have been extremely fortunate thus far and it is believed that a serious epidemic will be averted.

It is said that there is some pneumonia in this locality, principally among children. Most of the adults who have contracted the grippé have had it in a light form and have been able to break it up before more serious ailment developed.

Health officers throughout the country have advised persons suffering from colds to consult their physicians when the first symptoms appear. They say that this is one of the best precautionary measures, for in nearly every case the cold can be broken quickly and a long illness avoided. Headaches and fatigue are usually symptoms of the grippé as it appears this year.

The changing weather is said to be responsible to a large degree for the prevalence of colds this winter. One physician said that people become careless when the weather is warm and that colds are easily contracted when weather conditions change as frequently as they have during the last month. The rains followed by sudden drops in temperature are also favorable for rapid development of colds and the grippé, it is said.

While many people have colds the situation is not even comparable to that during the epidemic of 1918. While the majority of people suffering from the grippé are required to remain indoors for a few days the attack is more easily overcome. Most of those who have suffered with the grippé as it has developed this year say that it leaves them weak and that a considerable period of time is required for them to regain their normal strength.

ADVISES AGAINST MEDDLING ABROAD

George B. Lockwood Speaks at Annual Banquet of Republican Editorial Association

SEN. WATSON ALSO SPEAKER

W. O. Feudner of Daily Republican is Re-elected Secretary of The Association

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27—Closer attention to domestic political problems and enjoyment of citizens in a prosperous country, rather than meddling in European affairs, was advocated by George B. Lockwood, formerly of Muncie, who is secretary of the Republican national committee and editor of the National Republican, in an address before the annual banquet of the Indiana Republican Editorial association, at the Claypool hotel here Friday night.

Mr. Lockwood urged the editors to preach optimistic Republicanism and to dwell on the accomplishments of the Harding administration.

George B. Lindsay, publisher of the Marion Chronicle, was elected president of the association yesterday afternoon.

Herbert C. Wills, publisher of the Waterloo Press, who contested the presidency with Mr. Lindsay, was chosen treasurer of the association; George Elliott, of the Newcastle Courier, who served as treasurer for the last year, was promoted to vice president; and Will O. Feudner of the Rushville Republican, was re-elected secretary. Mr. Lindsay, who, with the other officers, serves for one year, succeeds Jess W. Pierce, publisher of the Clinton Clintonian.

The theme of Mr. Lockwood's banquet speech was "Fortunate America", and after referring to the spirit of unrest and pessimism fostered by demagogues and others, he pointed out that the United States is enjoying better economic conditions than any country in the world, and added that "all the elements are here for the greatest prosperity and progress this nation has ever known."

Besides Mr. Lockwood's speech, the banquet was marked by greetings to the publishers being delivered by Governor McCray, Senator James E. Watson, Albert J. Beveridge, who appeared in person, and written messages from President Harding, Vice President Coolidge and Senator Harry S. New. Mrs. Florence Riddick Boys of Plymouth extended greetings at the banquet.

JOHN E. JONES DIES FOLLOWING OPERATION

MEMBER OF THE COMMANDERY

John E. Jones, age seventy years, died at his home in Gwynneville Friday afternoon of heart trouble and other complications, and the funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon, with the members of Rushville commandery No. 49, Knights Templar, taking part.

The deceased was a member of Rushville commandery and was well known here, not only in Masonic circles, but by many other persons.

He suffered a blood clot in one leg, which necessitated its amputation last Tuesday, and from that time up until his death, his condition was very critical.

The widow is the only survivor.

The funeral will be held at the Gwynneville Christian church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock by the Rev. Mr. Burns of Tipton, formerly of Arlington, assisted by the pastor of the Gwynneville church. The Morristown Blue lodge of Masons will be in charge of the service. Members of Rushville commandery, Knights Templar, will act as escorts. They will go from here in automobiles. Burial will take place in the Morristown cemetery. A delegation of Greenfield Knights Templar members will attend.

Weekly Marketgram

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Washington, D. C. (For week ending January 26, 1923)

LIVESTOCK AND MEATS—Chicago hog prices ranged from 15 to 25c lower for the week. Beef steers steady to 15c lower, butcher cows and heifers steady to 10 and veal calves steady to 50c up with feeder steers unchanged. Fat lambs yearlings and fat ewes steady with a week ago while feeding lambs were 15 to 25c higher.

On Jan. 26 hogs opened slow, closed strong to 10c higher than Thursday's average; beef steers fully steady, butcher cows and heifers strong to 15c up; spots 25c up on heifers, other classes about steady; veal calves 25c lower. Fat sheep and lambs about steady.

Jan. 26 Chicago prices: Hogs, top, $8.35; bulk of sales $7.75-$8.20; medium and good beef steers $7.75-$10.85; butcher cows and heifers $3.75-$10.25; feeder steers $6.25-$8; light and medium weight veal calves $8.25-$12; fat lambs $13-15; feeding lambs $13-$15; yearlings $9.25-$13; fat ewes $5-$8.

Stocks and feeder shipments from 12 important markets during the week ending Jan. 26 were: Cattle and calves 61,093; hogs 11,924; sheep 28,457.

In Eastern wholesale fresh meat markets beef, veal, mutton and lambs ranged from weak to $2 lower light pork loins generally $1 lower and heavy hams 50c higher for the week.

On Jan. 26 beef and veal weak to steady; lambs $1 to 2 lower at Philadelphia weak elsewhere; mutton weak at New York, steady elsewhere; pork weak at New York and Philadelphia weak to 50c lower at Boston.

Jan. 26 prices good grade meats: beef $12.50-$16; veal $17-20; lamb $22-25; mutton $13-$15; light pork loins $15-$17; heavy loins $12.50-$14.

GRAIN—Grain prices show net declines for the week. Chicago May wheat down 1c; Chicago May corn down 3c. Prices firm early in week but weakened on foreign political news, lower Liverpool prices, and increase in visible supply.

Wheat market featureless on the 26th but buying on breaks prevented material declines; short covering late in session. Export demand slow. Corn prices followed changes in wheat.

Closing prices in Chicago cash market: No. 2 red winter wheat $1.30; No. 2 hard winter wheat 1.16; No. 2 mixed corn 72c; No. 2 yellow corn 71c; No. 3 white oats 43c. Average farm prices: No. 2 mixed corn in Central Iowa 50c; No. 2 hard winter wheat in Central Kansas $1. Closing future prices: Chicago May wheat $1.17; Chicago May corn 72c; Minneapolis May wheat $1.17; Kansas City May wheat $1.09; Winnipeg May wheat $1.12.

HAY—Lighter receipts strengthened hay markets in central west. Eastern markets steady at unchanged prices. Southern demand slightly improved. Alfalfa firm on light movement, and diminishing supplies. Quoted January 26—No. 1 Timothy N. Y. $23.50, Phila. $23, Pittsburgh $19.50, Cincinnati $17.25, Chicago $21, Minneapolis $16.50, St. Louis $20, Kansas City $15.75, No. 1 alfalfa: Kansas City $23, No. 1 prairie Kansas City $13.50, St. Louis $17.50, Minneapolis $15.50.

FEED—Markets continue quiet. Cottonseed prices reduced 50c per ton but reduction failed to stimulate demand. Linseed meal and wheat feeds particularly in western markets display easier tendency. Gluten feed prices firm, offerings light, demand dull. Hominy feed quoted 50c lower, offerings increasing, demand light. Mild weather reduced consumptive demand and stocks are accumulating. Flour mills soliciting orders for January-March as well as prompt shipment storage stocks and supplies in dealers' hands are rather large for this season. Receipts and movement fair. Quoted Jan. 26—bran $26.50; middlings $26.50; flour middlings $29; rye middlings $25.50 Minneapolis; white hominy feed $30 St. Louis, $31 Chicago; 34 percent linseed meal $52.75 Minneapolis, $51.75 Buffalo; gluten feed $43.65 Chicago; 36 percent cottonseed meal $41.50 Memphis, $42.50 Atlanta.

COTTON—Spot cotton prices declined 10 points during the week. New York March futures contracts decline 45 points.

Spot cotton closed at 27.84c per lb. New York March futures at 27.75c.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES—Potatoes steady to firm in city markets for the week; slightly weaker at northern shipping points. Apples generally steady. Sweet potatoes show weak tone. Cabbage market strong. Celery and spinach weaker in Eastern cities, firm in midwestern, lettuce declining.

Prices reported Jan. 26, New York sacked round white potatoes $1.35-$1.45 per 100 lbs in Eastern markets, $1.05-$1.10 fob shipping points. Maine bulk stock $1.65 to $1.75 in New York City. Northern sacked round whites $8c-$1.10 in Chicago and other midwestern cities, 60c-68c fob. New York Baldwin apples $4.50-5 per bbl in consuming centers, $4.25 fob shipping points. Northwestern extra fancy boxed winesaps $2.25-$2.50 in New York and Chicago, $1.50 fob. New Jersey and Delaware yellow sweet potatoes 65c-$1.50 per bu hamper in Eastern markets. Tennessee and Ark. Nancy hals 90c-$1.05 in the middle-west. New York and northern danish type cabbage $25-$35 per ton in leading markets, $18-$20 fob Florida pointed 14 bu hampers $2.50-$3 in Eastern cities. Florida head lettuce in 14 bu hampers $2.25-$3.25 in leading markets. California iceberg stock $3.75-$4.50 per crate, $2.10-$2.25 fob. Texas spinach in bu baskets $1.25-$1.65. Virginia stock in bbls $2.50-$3 in consuming markets. Florida celery in crates of 4-6 doz stalks $2.25-$3.25 in leading cities, $1.75-$2 fob California stock $5.50-$7.50 per California crate in city markets.

DAIRY PRODUCTS—Butter markets steady. Heavy receipts, light demand and resulting slow movement caused material price reductions during week. Little interest in foreign butter under present conditions.

Closing prices, 92 score butter: New York and Phila. 50c; Boston 51c; Chicago 48c.

Cheese markets lately steady. Buying fairly heavy early in week but withdrawal of support by some interests during middle of week served to remove strength. Cheese prices at Wisconsin primary markets Jan. 25: tyms 20c; daisies 27c; longhorns 27c; square prints 28c.

A BUTCHER'S BILL
4,000 YEARS OLD

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 27.—The history department of Franklin and Marshall Academy has acquired five Babylonian tablets more than 4,000 years old. The tablets were found in Jekha, the ruin of the ancient city of Umma, by Professor Edward James Banks of the University of Chicago and presented to Dr. E. M. Hartman, principal of Franklin and Marshall.

Tax lists and temple offerings dated about 2,000 B. C. are inscribed on the tablets. One inscription has been deciphered as a butcher's bill for "one large fat kid, two lambs, and two sheep, killed for market."

The expense account of a temple messenger collected for oil, dates, wine, bread and meat.

If I Could Type—

THERE would be business men, authors, or students, who would want typing done outside of regular hours—urgent work to be done without delay.

I would have this work brought to me. Through The Daily Republican Want Ads I would tell the men and women of Rushville how well I could type. Soon I would be a sort of community secretary—a public stenographer in my home. There would be a good profit in this.

I would insert my Want Ad in The Daily Republican at once, and keep it there. I would get steady customers from the beginning and others from day to day.

Film Stars and Salaries

What the stars of the moving picture comedies, dramas and tragedies do with their lofty salaries is a question that frequently recurs to the mind of the movie fan, who reads of the vast sums that are paid to those who have gained fame in the silent art.

The topic has been under discussion recently on account of the reported contract that Jackie Coogan signed for an original outlay of a half million dollars in addition to royalties. Jackie, it is said, although eight years of age, is beginning to lay up a nest egg and now owns an $80,000 home.

The case of the late Wallace Reid is particularly pathetic. Possessed of good health and popularity among followers of the silver screen that was excelled by few other actors or actresses, he is said to have dashed debonairly through a merry career without saving much of anything. He put up a brave battle against odds that were too great even for his strong physique and paid the penalty for forming a habit that could not be broken.

The Photoplay magazine is authority for the statement that most of the film favorites have laid by a tidy sum and that they are not the luxurious spendthrifts that they are supposed to be. It is said that Richard Barthelmess inspects a restaurant check with such care that the shades of his frugal Dutch ancestors must chuckle with particular glee, and that Rex Ingram, the noted director, indulges in nothing more than a Ford. He is reported to have made a half million last year and he is building up a bank account, along with his wife, Alice Terry, who also banks her salary every week while Rex pays the household bills.

Other examples of thriftiness among screen stars are cited. Harold Lloyd infrequently rides in any sort of a motor car and Mary Pickford shops as carefully as the most salary-bound day laborer's wife. Lillian and Dorothy Gish, for example, have never had but 2 automobiles in all their careers in moving pictures, although they draw $300 a week interest on their savings. And Lillian owns a restaurant in San Pedro, Calif.

WAS CONGRESS EMBARRASSED

When a flock of pretty girls headed by Mayor Harley of Astoria, Oregon, besieged the National Capitol and asked Congressmen to vote truthfully on whether or not they believed in the Eighteenth Amendment? The polling is being conducted by the National Liberal Alliance and will be carried out through the United States. Photo shows (left to right): Miss Clara Worth, Miss Irene Bryant, Rep. R. N. Elliott, of Indiana; Rep. John P. Hill, of Maryland, and Miss Katherine Lewis. These three girls are the most active workers in the polling campaign.

Mary Pickford is said to be the richest of all this class which has been drawing such fabulous sums, with Cecil de Mille, Charlie Chaplin, Norma Talmadge, Mary Miles Minter, Anita Stewart and Harold Lloyd close behind in spectacular savings.

David Ward Griffith, producer of "The Birth of a Nation" and other screen masterpieces, possesses fourteen-acre lemon ranch, and that is the extent of his savings.

Gloria Swanson has practically paid for a $90,000 California residence. Mabel Normand's savings consist of a half million in jewels. Recently she purchased a home for her parents on Staten Island. Priscilla Dean owns a house that is valued at $85,000.

William Farnum's wealth is prodigious. His fortune is invested in real estate in California and the East, and amounts to about a million. His private estate is located at Sag Harbor, Long Island. Mr. Farnum's hobby is boating and he owns seven boats, ranging from a yacht to a motor launch.

Bill Hart has a $60,000 Hollywood house and a ranch at Newhall, California, near Carey's property. He also owns some valuable property in Connecticut.

Louisa Fazenda owns considerable California real estate and has some valuable oil holdings.

William Russell owns Hepner's beauty parlor in Los Angeles.

Mary Pickford has over $1,500,000 in Liberty and government bonds.

Charlie Chaplin is close behind Miss Pickford in securities.

Cecil de Mille has made a tremendous fortune from oil speculation alone.

Mary Miles Minter has $750,000

in gold notes, mortgages and bonds alone and owns a restaurant in Hollywood.

Anita Stewart has a startling sum in Liberty bonds and owns 4,000 acres of rich oil lands.

Norma Talmadge has close to a million in bonds and stocks in her own name.

NEW TAXES TO REPLACE PRESENT TAXES MAKE NO MORE GOOD ROADS

The above cartoon drawn by "Chic" Jackson is said to indicate some of the things "they are going to do next" to the owners of motor vehicles. It also is alleged to represent some of the things "they" have already done.

"The Hoosier State Automobile Association" asserts it stands for more money for the Highway Commission sufficient to take care of its increased mileage program and secure Indiana's portion of Federal Aid. The figures of the Highway Commission, they assert, show that not more than $1,500,000 over the present income is necessary to take care of this program, providing the present small state tax levy and inheritance fund is allowed to continue in the Highway Commission road fund.

The association asserts further that the taxing of gasoline as commonly cannot legally be done under the Indiana constitution and that if it could be collected there would be

be raised through a small increase in all license fees which can be collected without another dollar of cost.

It is pointed out that the proposed 2 cents gasoline tax and 100 per cent increase in license fees is only a plan to raise more money and while this money would go to the state and possibly some to the county road funds, it would be to replace money now in those road funds and that the motoring public is being asked to support a tremendous tax increase program under the guise of it being for more good roads, while the matter of fact it is not for an increased road program other than a possible increase of 1,000,000 to $1,500,000 in the State Highway Commission road fund.

The association asserts further that the taxing of gasoline as commonly cannot legally be done under the Indiana constitution and that if it could be collected there would be a lot of new jobs created and a large collection cost which would not build any roads or even replace other funds. Not only has it been proposed to put on a gasoline tax for good roads(?), but it is declared one member of the legislature has proposed another one cent tax on gasoline to provide for one thousand watchmen at grade crossings, stating that such a plan would not cost the tax payer a cent. Last year will be remembered that a bill was introduced to put a tax on gasoline to be used for the propagation of fish and bees and other interests of the Conservation Commission. The automobile association maintains that a personal property tax, a federal tax of five per cent on cars, accessories, and repair parts, and a license fee tax, making three taxes in all, is enough, and that the majority of states have no personal property tax on automobiles.

S' wonderful, when you come t' think about it, th' good these Christmas Clubs do. They've been a Godsend t' thousands o' people who usta go through life without ever dreamin' o' savin' anything for a rainy day but a leaky umbrella; an' lot o' them not that much. People have got started t' savin' money by keepin' up their payments in the Clubs that never woulda' had an iron man t' their names. An' 'tain't long, either, before some o' 'em are right in th' capitalist class, ready t' c'nsider buyin' a bond or two or a little stock, mebbe, or find themselves in shape to make th' first payment on a — you thought I was goin' to say a home, didn't you? Well, hardly. In these days of absolute necessity for somethin' t' furnish a ready topic o' conversation at family gatherin's an' such like, one that's never liable t' be exhausted, th' thing that takes th' cake an' stands in a class by itself is th' little ol' wagon that Elwood Haynes invented an' a certain gent in Detroit makes quite a speck o' money out of.

If it wasn't for their Christmas clubs, how would some people ever manage a look-in on th' raptures o' th' silver game? How'd they ever get t' experience th' wonderful thrill o' tryin' t' beat street cars an' trains to t' an' losin' by th' breadth of a baby's eyelash? I guess they figger, why should they pay out good money for a home when they ain't liable t' live th' year through anyway. Nothin' harder for some people than gettin' started payin' on a home, unless it's slowin' down an' bein' careful at short turns an' crossin's.

Shelbyville Sprung Surprise by Defeating Franklin and Owensville by Defeating Lebanon

Frankfort, Ind., Jan. 27.—Upsets galore have kept the sport dopesters on the bench for some time with the doctor working over them trying to make them feel that all is not lost.

They are even afraid to dope Vincennes to win the games before the tournaments. It is rather discouraging to have one's pet team lose to a comparatively weak conference contender.

When teams like Jefferson of Lafayette fall before unheard of teams like Emerson of Gary which was not thought dangerous because its football schedule. It seems to a man up a tree that Emerson is trying her best to show that a team can win a state football championship and then turn around with reverse English and take the old leather pushers right over the same coals and rub them down into the mire.

Shelbyville although having no apparent grudge against the dopesters took a vacation and defeated the state champs of last season by an overwhelming score. The entire state took the jolt with about as much ease as Franklin did herself.

The true meaning of upsets was never better defined than when Owensville five defeated Lebanon after Lebanon had held Vincennes to a three point lead.

Dark horse possibilities are about as likely to show up this season as the sun is to shine on Wednesday. Ben Davis is a possible dark horse and then Paoli might surprise the followers of basketball in the state.

Vincennes is getting a great deal of publicity from all over the state and after checking up constant victories, they have a right to be in the limelight with all colors flying. The majority of dopesters in the state even the most optimistic press agents for their home teams concede that it is all together probable that Vincennes will take to the state meet this season an unblemished record.

The hope and not belief that most writers are expressing in their predictions that Vincennes will lose on their road journey is not likely to occur.

In the last half Carthage again pulled out strong, and Manilla fought hard and climbed up on them. With only two minutes to play, each team changed their line-up of players, and Manilla forged to the front, and won out in an exciting finish.

Justice in Willard's Demand

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Jan. 27.—The case of Jess Willard is a problem to the boxing world just as big as he is. Those who have the good of the game at heart must decide on what constitutes a fair deal for the former heavyweight champion. Those who have their own good at heart and are in the game for what they can get out of it, have to figure on how much the public will really stand for.

Willard defends his campaign for another bout with Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight championship with statements that he is the former champion and has the right of an ex-title holder for another chance; that he is the biggest and strongest of all the contenders and that he can get into condition to fight.

With some qualifications, there is some soundness in Willard's claims. There is no doubt that he was entitled to a return bout and the justice of his demand never would have been questioned if he had not been over three years in deciding he wanted it.

Beyond all doubt, Jess is physically the biggest and strongest man in the heavyweight class, but size doesn't mean anything when it is accompanied by so many years.

That Willard can get back into condition is something that can be determined only after he has shown himself.

Johnny Dundee and Willie Lewis, two ring veterans who know something about condition and who haven't any axes to grind with Willard looked him over recently and declared they thought him to be in splendid condition.

"He looks better than he did when he was here to meet Morah", they both said.

Big Jess has made other statements that the desire for the loser's end of a big purse did not enter into his decision to attempt a comeback. He claimed that he only wanted to get some revenge for what was done to him in Toledo that hot fourth of July, back in 1918.

When he was interviewed by Tom O'Rourke, matchmaker for the Republic Athletic Club, however, he did not show any aversion to money. He asked for a guarantee of $50,000 and a percentage of the gate.

It may be, in justice to Willard, that he had reached an agreement with Tex Rickard to fight and that was his way of getting away from O'Rourke.

Willard might have done much better if he had suggested that he be given a good trial horse to show that he was in condition to engage in a championship fight. Instead, he opposed suggestions that he demonstrate how good he was and said that he wanted no one but Dempsey.

Tex Rickard is strong for Willard and maintains that he is still a good opponent for Dempsey. Rickard, of course, speaks from a box office point of view and perhaps he is right.

From a standpoint of sportsmanship it is to be desired that Willard should get a square deal, but in granting it to him it should be borne in mind that Tommy Gibbons and Harry Wills are also entitled to fair treatment.

Hittin' 'Em and Missin' 'Em

pletely out of luck on making 'em the Rushville goals made larger, or else lowered, so that the boys can reach them. The locals were completely out of luck on making 'em count last night, although they had enough chances to run up a big score, even if one-half of the shots had been good.

WE STILL SAY THAT THE BASKETBALL NEEDS ENGLISH—NOT THE PLAYER.

WE WEREN'T SURPRISED

Even Newcastle can't start a winning streak. After they get squared away by winning two straight, along comes Muncie and knocks their hopes high, defeating them 39 to 19.

ONLY A 3 POINT VICTORY

Elwood, the team which is claiming a berth on the Big Ten in Indiana, was almost set back in their 13th game last night, when Conersville held them to a close score of 34 to 31. Elwood plays here tonight, and we are hoping that old man Luck will smile on our team, and make their shots more effective.

FOLLOW YOUR SHOTS IN, GANG.

BUT WE'RE STILL PICKIN'

Vincennes defeated Anderson for the second time last night, 29 to 27. The game was neck and neck at all points, and although most dopesters give Vincennes the edge over Anderson, we know from experience, that the Alicetown boys can't stand the gaff at the state tourney, and—WE'RE STILL PICKIN' ANDERSON.

SOMEONE ELSE ALSO

Hadn't anyone than written that, when our telephone rang, and another basketball fan sympathized with us for our poor dope on Anderson, but told us confidentially that he was also pickin' Anderson to win the state tourney.

HAND IT TO STEVE, BOYS

When it comes to second teams, you gotta hand it to Steve and his colts. Even if the major coach drafted Conella and Readle from the second team, Hittin' 'em can't see but what the second team is just as good as ever. Culp, also of the second team, was out of the game last night on account of illness, or the score would have been still different, we're thinkin'.

Columbus can't win 'em all. They don't amount to much up against a real team like Martinsville. Just like Shelbyville, up against Muncie.

Once more, follow in your shots, gang.

The game was delayed last night for some time on account of Referee Babb failing to get here. The card due at 7:39 was late. Hittin' 'em is in favor of the athletic board spending 50 cents for the referee's supper, and advising them to come on an earlier car. This is the second game recently that has been delayed on account of the referee.

WHY DON'T YOU ASK 'EM

Another basketball fan asked us last night what had become of those glass banking boards that their extra 25 cents was going to purchase when Conersville played here in December.

Let's hit the basket tonight, that is, hit it some place where the ball will go through.

WE'RE WRONG AGAIN

We were all wrong again on our dope. Webb defeated Arlington. Any way we said it would be a close, and good game.

Dopesters had another chance to see how the teams in the county line up, by comparing the scores of the games played between most of the county teams last night. Manilla at Carthage; Webb at Arlington and Moscow at Raleigh.

Don't let Elwood scare you. Someone will beat 'em before long. Why not you. Someone will beat Vincennes and we got it doped that Anderson will knock 'em off at the state tourney.

ANOTHER ONE OBJECTS TO 'SCARLET'

Ben, an old timer of the high school, also tells Hittin' 'em that the basketball team hasn't any business being called the Scarlet aggregation. He reminds us that the high school colors are red and black, and not scarlet. He sort a stands by the Wabash college student, who didn't want us to classify the high school team with his Little Giants.

TWO CUPS TO COP

Two high school tourneys in this neck of the woods today. One at Falmouth, and the other at Hagers-town. At the former, six teams from Fayette and two from Rush county are taking part. Up at Hagerstown, all of the eight teams are from Wayne county, and Richmond expects to cop the cup.

Cheer up, we've gotta tourney comin' next Saturday. An all day affair with eight county teams; ram to go.

LOOK WHOSE GONNA PLAY

Another thing to look forward to at the tourney next Saturday is the curtain raiser at the night game. The girls from Milroy will play the Rushville high school girls. We are sure of having one team play at night, at any rate, aren't we Milroy and Rushville.

WON'T NEED THE REGULARS ANYWAY

Newcastle is still determined that they are going to mop up the earth here next Friday night, but we gotta hunch that Coach Jones will play his substitutes and save the regulars for the tourney on the next day.

GO GET 'EM GLENWOOD

Glenwood didn't play their best last night against our second team; we are told, because they wanted to save up for the tourney at Falmouth today. Good luck, Glenwood.

High School Games Tonight

Elwood at Rushville.
Richmond seconds at Rushville.
Columbus at Frankfort.
Vincennes at Lebanon.
Muncie at Lafayette.
Conersville at Brookville.
Marion at Technical.
Cathedral at Wylie, Terre Haute.

RUSHVILLE PUTS UP STIFF DEFENSE

Unable to Connect With Basket After Buzzer, They Drop One to Shelbyville Here

FINAL COUNT IS 33 TO 15

Two Teams Seem Evenly Matched For First Ten Minutes and Then Visitors Break Loose

The Rushville high school basketball team, unable to connect safely with the basket after many open shots, dropped the game here to Shelbyville Friday night, 33 to 15, when the visiting team hit the basket with long shots, sweeping the locals off their feet.

In the curtain raiser, the Rushville colts did not experience much trouble in downing the Glenwood team, winning out over them, 39 to 15.

In the big game of the evening, Rushville and Shelbyville fought hard at all times, but the more accurate goal shooting of the visitors enabled them to pile up the score. Rushville had an equal number of shots at the basket, and perhaps more shots, but it seemed as if a jinx was trailing, and the ball would not go through.

The first five minutes was furious, and Barnett broke the ice in scoring a field goal for Shelbyville. The visiting team kept this lead for a few minutes more, and Rushville took several shots at the net, only to have them go wild, and Hilligoss soon located the right spot, and tied the score.

After a few more minutes of fast work, a foul was called and Barnett made good one chance to score. Ten minutes of the first half had slipped by, and the two teams seemed evenly matched, until Shelbyville became desperate and began to shoot from the center. At this point the baskets began to pile in for them from deep center, and soon the score stood 15 to 2.

The locals never slackened their attack, and managed to make many shots, but all of them wouldn't count. McNamara found the basket for a side line shot, and soon Phillips gave his team another point from a foul.

After outplaying Shelbyville for several minutes again, Phillips scored with a field goal and Readle, who had substituted at forward, also grabbed off a field goal from the side, boosting the locals to 9, and with Shelbyville leading at 15, when the half ended.

The second half was practically a repetition of the first half, as the locals' luck did not improve, and the Shelbyville team went wild on long shots, making most of them go through for two points, and scoring almost at will, although the locals put up a strong defense under the basket.

In the last half, as in the first period, Rushville played a consistent floor game, and carried the ball through time and time again, only to miss what appeared to be easy shots. It could readily be seen that the defense of Shelbyville was weak, and any team with an accurate eye for the basket would not have much trouble in trouncing them.

In the last half, Rushville did not make as good a showing in scoring as in the first half, allowing Shelbyville to total 18, while Rushville counted six points, on two field goals, and two fouls.

WEBB PULLS AWAY IN THE LAST HALF

Outclasses Arlington High School Five Friday Night at Arlington, Winning 34 to 16

OPEN SECOND WITH 20 POINTS

The Webb high school outclassed the Arlington high school basketball team Friday night at Arlington by the score of 34 to 16, pulling away from them in the last half, after the two teams fought to a standstill in the first half, at 10 points each.

At the start of the last half Webb entered the game fast and piled up 20 points before Arlington had scored, and with the count 30 to 10, Webb substituted, and Arlington added 6 points, while Webb added 4. The game was fast, and Talbert, star forward for Webb, was out of the game on account of an injury.

The Webb girls also won out from the Arlington girls in the preliminary 24 to 9. Mildred Carvein and Helen Hungerford stood out for the winners and Zella Hutchinson for the losers.

SOCIETY

The Coterie club will be entertained Monday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock by Mrs. R. C. Hargrove at her home in West Seventh street.

Mrs. Ray Compton was hostess to the members of the Tarry-A-White club Friday afternoon at her home in West Fourth street. The Ladies enjoyed the afternoon informally with music and a short program was given. At the close of the evening the hostess served her guests with dainty refreshments.

Following the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge meeting Friday evening in their lodge rooms in West Second street, a social hour was held. The social committee had charge of the program which consisted of songs, recitations and readings. Light refreshments were also served at the close of the meeting.

The members of the Missionary Society of the Main street Christian church are especially urged to be present in the service Sunday morning when the Rev. E. Richards will preach on "The New Apostolate of Women." The envelopes containing the Woman's Missionary Day offering will be received at this service.

OBITUARY

The air is full of farewells to the dying.

And mourning for the dead;
The heart of Rachel, for her children crying,
Will not be comforted.

Let us be patient. These severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise;
But oftentimes celestial benedictions
Assume this dark disguise.

In that great cloister's pure and holy stillness,
By guardian angels led;
Safe from temptations, safe from sin's pollution,

She lives whom we call dead.

The book of another human life has closed and again we are called together to pay our last tribute of respect. Though the call came not in prattling childhood nor in the charm of youth, the allotted time was but a span in which to enjoy life's alluring charms and to solve its, sometimes, difficult problems.

Theodosia B. Guffin, youngest child of Andrew and Clara Guffin, was born Nov. 2, 1879 in the Little Flatrock community, Rush County, Indiana, in which County she spent her entire life. She was married to Claude B. Hunt, March 20, 1898. To this union three daughters were born who live to mourn the loss of both parents. They are Mrs. Marjorie Bell, and Georgia and Wilna Hunt. Besides the daughters there are four brothers, four sisters, a number of other relatives and many friends to hold in memory the power of her friendship.

She made the Good Confession early in life and became a member of the Little Flatrock Christian Church. Later, with her husband she moved her membership to the Ben Davis Creek Christian Church, where she was an active worker until ill health and removal from the community prevented her regular attendance at the church services. At the latter place she served as President of the local society of C. W. B. M. for a period of two years.

She waited upon her husband very bravely and patiently during his last sickness and death but was left too exhausted to withstand the ravages of her own disease and after many weeks of intense suffering she responded to the summons of the Angel of Death Jan. 20, 1923.

"O, the hallowed name of mother;
How we miss it o'er and o'er,
While we're drifting in time's ocean,
Drifting toward the golden shore.
In the Christian's home in glory,
Out across death's silent goal—
We shall meet her—we shall greet her—
In the homeland of the soul."

Shiek Haircuts Passing

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 26.—Shieks of the desert of Indiana who wish to continue in favor with their fair ladies will have to abandon sideburns and take up a new style which is soon to be dictated by fashion directors, an Indianapolis barber said today.

"Shiek haircuts are just like everything else," he said.

"They are disappearing gradually. Some will keep them and some won't." Haircut styles change as other styles change, he said.

AMUSEMENTS

At The Princess Today

Because she thought she had lost everything in life worth living for Alice Lambert was ready to sign away her life. It didn't matter how soon she died; anything was better than the existence of want, poverty and squalor she had gone through in four months. Her guardian had never trained her in any useful occupation and when the thunderbolt struck her she was as helpless as a flimsy shingle.

She couldn't earn her living at any useful occupation; and in the myriad ways of artists' studios and dressmaking shops she had no experience in fighting off unwelcome attentions. Life really didn't matter, so she signed the agreement because there was to be six months of unalloyed bliss before the time came to pay.

This is the situation the screen unfolds in "Her Mad Bargain," the new Louis Mayer-First National attraction starring Anita Stewart showing at the Princess today. The story is unusually full of action and tense interest, with a new idea worked through curving channels to a surprising conclusion.

Alice Lambert, the leading character, has the problem outlined above to face and she solves the situation in her own way. Life, with all the luxury she has been accustomed to is the only thing that matters; but the awakening comes before it is too late.

Anita Stewart has never been more attractive than in her present role. There is a refreshing influence in her style of acting and it is enhanced in its present surroundings of limousines, chiffons, laces, silks and satins.

Walter McGrail as leading man heads a capable cast. The picture was directed by Edwin Carewe.

Little Theatre

"Tamar"

"Tamar," a ballet adapted from the Russian poem "The Demon" by Lermontov will be the third number on the second bill of the Little Theatre next Monday night at the Princess. The story from which it is taken is an old Russian legend and has been used many times in its native country both as a ballet and as an opera. Two of that country's greatest composers have written music to its story. Balakirev composed the score of the version presented by the Ballet Russe on its tour of America and Rubenstein has made it the basis of one of his most famous operas, "The Demon." In the latter form it will be presented by the Russian Grand Opera Company at the Murat next Wednesday.

For its presentation here Raymond Gregg has taken the original poem and made from it an adaptation which is most suited to a more or less limited production. The effects obtained are very startling considering the small investment incurred. The limitations of an amateur production are sometimes an incentive study of the life and color of stage groupings so that the result is more artistic than a generally gaudy or over pretensions effect that always comes with unlimited means.

The ones who have worked together on the production have put their very best efforts into it. Charlotte Norris has been particularly valuable with her rare musical talent, but besides that has given much of her time to many other details. Miss Luvva Straton, who conducts dancing classes here every week, has devoted many extra hours with her pupils in preparing their dances, and has besides consented to appear as the solo dancer. Miss Straton's home is in Newcastle and she has classes there also. The community is indeed very fortunate to have so talented a dancer doing such a beneficial work among the children and younger girls.

COOKING SCHOOL NEXT WEEK

Will Be Conducted In The Modern Woodman Hall Here

A free cooking school will be held at the Modern Woodman hall all next week, beginning Monday and continuing through Saturday, under the auspices of the Rush County Mills. Women of Rush county are urgently requested to attend, and witness the demonstrations in the baking of bread, cake and pie crusts, and the making of the salads and the salad dressings. No one who makes a tough steak tender will also be demonstrated.

Mrs. Lula T. Silvernail, a national authority on cooking who has had a wide experience as a lecturer and cooking school instructor, will be in charge of the school. Free souvenirs will be given to all who attend the first day.

IN MEMORIAM

The air is full of farewells to the dying

And mourning for the dead;
The heart of Rachel, for her children crying,
Will not be comforted.

Let us be patient. These severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise;
But oftentimes celestial benedictions
Assume this dark disguise.

In that great cloisters pure and holy stillness,
By guardian angels led;
Safe from temptations, safe from sin's pollution,

He lives whom we call dead.

The book of another human life has closed and we are again called together to pay our last tribute of respect. The autumn of this life followed close upon its springtime. However 'tis but a span from the cradle to the grave, whether called in the prime of life with its alluring charms, or in the days that are ripe with age, when the head has become silvered with gray.

Claude Benjamin Hunt, son of George W. and Sarah Frances Hunt, was born May 15, 1875 in Rush County, Indiana, in which county he spent the whole of his life. He chose as his bosom companion Theodosia Guffin, whom he married March 20, 1898, and to this union three daughters were born, Marjorie Ellen, Georgia Lucile, and Wilna Lanore, each of whom yet live. His wife, for whom he had a boundless devotion, also remains to mourn his departure. In addition to these his mother, bowed down with grief as she walks through the valley of the shadow of death, three brothers, Ray of St. Louis, Blaine of Indianapolis, and Sidney L. of Rushville, three sisters, Mrs. Sallie Stem and Mrs. Blanche Walls, of Knightstown, and Mrs. Inez Morris, of near Ben Davis Creek, Rush Co., many other relatives and a multitude of friends live to hold in memory the magnetic power of his friendship.

He confessed his faith in Christ as the Son of God at the Little Flat Rock Christian Church about the year 1896. In June 1915 he placed his membership with the Christian Church at Ben Davis Creek, and there he was active in the work of his Master as long as his health and strength would permit. He served as Sunday School Superintendent for a period and was later elected to the eldership but due to ill health was never enabled to actively serve in that capacity. Faith in the Saviour was to him an anchor sure and steadfast. He departed this life June 5, 1922.

If we listen we can hear the echoes from a life well lived and a work well done. He needs no words of eulogy, the record of his life has been well written. To those who are in sorrow may there be the assurance and comfort in the One who has promised never to leave you; weep not as those who have no hope.

Lift thee, pale mourner; God, with pity tender,
Bends down to thy low cry;
He is thy keeper, He is thy defender,
He guards with sleepless eye,
The smiling world may cruelly deceive thee,
And thy poor heart may break,
But He will never, never, never leave thee,
And never thee forsake.

Thou cypress-wreathed, no more mid shadows linger,
Far from the realms of day;
Thy Heavenly Father points with love's own finger,
The upward shining way;
Love unpaid, Hope unfulfilled may grieve thee,
Thine Idols all may break,
But he will never, never, never leave thee,
And never thee forsake.

It Pays to Advertise

THAT'S a recognized fact today. But bear this in mind: the only reason it pays to advertise is that millions of thrifty folks find it a paying proposition to be guided by the advertisements. If you will read advertisements consistently for a while you'll readily agree that this statement is true.

It will pay you in money saved. Real bargains are offered frequently in the advertisements that appear in this paper. Watch for them. Take advantage of them.

It will pay you in time saved. It tells you exactly when and where to go for what you want to buy. You don't have to waste time and effort "shopping around." If your time is worth money, advertising will pay you.

It will pay you in added satisfaction. Every time a merchant or manufacturer advertises he obligates himself to sell you goods that are as advertised. Read the advertisements and be sure you get your money's worth.

Reading the advertisements is a plain every-day business proposition. It is a duty you owe yourself and your pocketbook.

Read the advertisements.

PRISON FOR WOMEN IS RUN BY WOMEN

Alabama Takes First Steps In Prison Reform By Providing Institution Strictly Modern

OLD BUILDING RENOVATED

Structure Has Been Renewed And Women Will Have Complete Charge Over Female Inmates

(By United Press)
Montgomery, Ala. Jan. 27.—A penal institution for women, offered throughout by women, will be Alabama's 1923 contribution toward the furtherance of prison reforms in the United States.

Under the direction of former Governor Thomas F. Kilby, an old penal building at Wetumka, one of the first buildings of Alabama's old penal system has been renovated and fitted out as the woman's prison.

The building will be modern throughout. The old narrow, dark, brick-lined cells in which women prisoners were formerly isolated at night, have been abolished. Not a brick is to be found on the inside of the jail. The old whipping post which stood at the entrance of the dungeon room and the dungeon room itself has been abolished. Several thousand dollars has been spent in renovating the prison.

Mrs. Sarah E. Kirkpatrick, who has been engaged in work among women prisoners in Alabama for years, will be the superintendent. The only two male officials who have anything to do with the administration of affairs in the building will be deputy warden, whose duties are outside the walls, and the prison physician.

A modern prison bakery a clothing factory, where the women convicts will make prison uniforms, and a complete prison kitchen will make the penitentiary practically self-supporting.

TO PRESERVE JAIL AS LAND MARK OF FAME

New Jail of Brick Veneer to be Built to Take Place of Historic Brown County Jail

TO CONTAIN THREE CELLS

Nashville, Ind., Jan. 27.—The historic Brown county jail will be preserved as landmark of Brown county fame, officials have decided.

The old log structure will not be used to house law violators much longer.

A new jail of brick veneer and a bungalow residence for the sheriff will be built. The new jail will contain only three cells because there is little use for them here.

Two walls of logs laid horizontally and reinforced by a third wall of logs in between in vertical position formed the barricade against which prisoners were permitted to beat in futile efforts to escape.

FUELED PRECEDED IN BUILDING OF CITY

Historian At Gary Recalls Fights Held On Sand Dunes Over Shooting Of Wild Game

NATIVES WERE REBUKED

Chicago Hunters Caused Much Trouble In The "Dark And Bloody Land Of The Calumet"

Gary, Ind., Jan. 27.—Out of the jungles of Gary steel mills which spring up on the sand dunes of the Calumet today came a story of a feud which had its inception in an argument over the killing of wild ducks in the sand dunes and marshes upon which the "Magic City" continues its industrial growth.

In the jungles of marsh and dunes there was an abundance of mallards, canvas-backs, pin-tails, blue wing teals and occasional swan and once a pelican before the smoke of steel mills drove them away and the nightly glare from the blast furnaces obscured the stars and moon.

This abundance of game was the cause of feud half a century ago according to J. William Lester, member of the Gary Historical Society who is recording the events in Lake county history.

A number of wealthy men came down from Chicago and formed the Tolleston Gun Club, Lester said. They laid out game reservations, and kept out the earlier settlers and farmers, hunters, trappers, long accustomed to the freedom of the wilderness.

The intrusion was bitterly resented and there came a time when guns were loaded and deadly ambush resulted in bloodshed. The hostilities and frequent battles continued up until surveys laid out the land where the mills belch forth their smoke.

It was called "the dark and bloody land of the Calumet."

"Game warden were employed by the club," said Mr. Lester. They kept off the trespassers and the battle for the encounters deserve the name which took place between them and the natives kept the owners surgeons and courts busy ever since the first Chicago millionaire shot his first mallard in an Indiana marsh.

But the marsh land with the blood stains of its pioneers is still being reclaimed to make way for more industries and there is talk that Gary will some day be the largest city west of New York.

Engineers are working on a plan now to deepen the channels of the Calumet river to reclaim great tracts and thereby write the last chapter of hunting in the famous Calumet.

ATTENTION, LADIES OF RUSHVILLE AND VICINITY

ATTENTION, PLEASE!

Mrs. Lulu Silvernail, nationally known lecturer and cooking school instructor, will conduct a FREE COOKING SCHOOL in the Modern Woodmen Hall, beginning Monday, January 29th, and ending Saturday, February 3rd.

Monday, January 29th to Saturday, February 3rd, Inclusive

This wonderful course is open to each and every lady, free of charge. Enroll as a member the first day so as not to miss the hundreds of practical recipes that will be given out, demonstrated and lectured on by Mrs. Lulu Silvernail in person. To each lady attending (the first day only) will be given a souvenir, and articles baked during the course will be distributed among those attending. Classes will be conducted from two until five each afternoon daily and the program of the course in part is as follows:

MONDAY

Quick breads of various kinds will be demonstrated. Both sweet and sour milk biscuits baked and served. Instructions in deep fat frying given. Fried cakes and fritters served to all.

Please do not forget that souvenirs are to be given to each lady attending on the first day.

TUESDAY

Articles made from yeast will be featured. The quick method of bread making, which requires no sponge setting or kneading, will be demonstrated. No more failures or disappointments on bread baking days. Fancy rolls, coffee cakes and caramel nut rolls will be made, baked and given away.

WEDNESDAY

Do you have difficulty in making perfect boiled icing? See the "Jiffy Icing" made in 5 minutes. Instructions in all kinds of cake making, which insures against failure. Are your Angel Foods as you want them? See the Angel Food demonstration and get the "Pollyanna" cake recipe. Valuable hints and instructions.

THURSDAY

Have you see a double-decked pie? Is your meringue high and tender? Does the juice ooze out of the pie into the oven? Is your pastry flaky? See the double-decked pies made, learn how to make perfect ice water meringue, see the juice stay in the pie while it is cooking and watch the pie crust made that crumbles in flakes.

FRIDAY

Salad, salad dressing. This is sufficient to interest women. Delicious salad dressings and numerous kinds of salads will be the entertainment for the day. Get the "Thousand Island Dressing" recipe and if it does not suit the "Thousand and One Island Dressing" will.

Invite your friends to these demonstrations.

SATURDAY

If you have attended previous sessions you will be present on this day. Can you make a tough steak tender? A general talk on meats will be made and many miscellaneous demonstrations will feature the day.

Invite your friends to these demonstrations.

ARISTOS, a hard wheat short patent flour of the highest quality, will be used exclusively in all demonstration work throughout this course.

BUILDING FIRST RIGID AIRSHIP

Within Largest Single Room in World America's First ZR-1 Is Now Under Construction

FOUNDATION OF SUCCESS

Construction Of One Single Room
Was One Of Problems To Be Solved By Engineers

Washington, Jan. 27.—Within the largest single room in the world—the hangar built by the United States Navy at the Naval Air Station at Lakehurst, N. J.—America's first large "home-built" rigid airship, the ZR-1, is now under construction.

Lessons learned from European builders, augmented by those gained through its own experiences, have enabled the Navy Department to plan and start construction on its first Zeppelin type airships, which, the department believes, will be the foundation for the nation's future success in commercial and naval aviation.

Several years have been required for equipment and construction of the plant, before work on the big ship could begin. Construction of one single room, with a clear floor space of 804 feet by 264 feet and 192 feet in height, was one of the problems to be solved by engineers before work on the ship itself could be begun.

The building, now completed is a unit in one of the most complete naval air stations in the world. To this station America will look for most of her future development in lighter than air construction and maintenance.

The magnitude of the building is hard to grasp without comparison, but when the department announced that on a mezzanine floor, skirting the edges of the big room, there is space for gas bag storage room, a large cafeteria and a kitchen supplied with all electrical and steam cooking conveniences; that under this floor are riggers shops, balloon shops, wood shops, metal shops and machine shops, all equipped with the

MOVIE STAR BITTEN BY CAMEL

Eleanor Boardman, leading woman of "Souls for Sale," was bitten on the right arm by a camel while a desert scene was being filmed at Indio, California. The wound was so severe that the actress nearly lost her arm. This photograph shows Miss Boardman on the back of the camel shortly before she suffered the injury.

most modern machinery for repairs of air ships, the size of the great chamber is more easily comprehended.

Doors and windows of the big shed are all operated electrically. The doors, each weighing 1,350 tons, can be closed by hand at the rate of 8 feet per minute, or by power at 20 feet per minute. The windows, necessarily high from the ground are closed and opened by push buttons making ventilation easily controlled. Great banks of flood lights line the walls for lighting the interior of the shed at night, while the exterior is equipped with target lights and search lights for night landing.

Another feature of the station required for handling the big ship, is a tower 164 feet high and resembling the famous Eiffel Tower of Paris. The nose of the ship will be moored to this tower, making it possible to use the hangar for construction and repair of other ships.

The tower will be supplied with gasoline through electrically driven pumps which will drive it straight to the ship's tanks.

For the gas bag and storage, building a blower house, one 1,000,000 cubic foot tank and another 25,000 cubic foot capacity, is said by the department to be one of the most complete in the world. The gas is produced by the electrolytic process of breaking water mixed with caustic soda up into hydrogen and oxygen. The latter product is stored in one 10,000 cubic foot tank. The production capacity of the plant is 70,000 cubic feet of hydrogen and 35,000 cubic feet of oxygen in 24 hours.

Great banks of flood lights line the walls for lighting the interior of the shed at night, while the exterior is equipped with target lights and search lights for night landing.

Childless "Mothers" Of Chicago Social World Are Scouring Country For Babies To Adopt

DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY

So Great Is The Desire That Many Are Going To New York And Other Cities For Waifs

(By United Press)

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Childless "mothers" of the Chicago social world are scouring the country for homeless waifs to adopt.

The demand for the children of "the doorstep and the alley," who have been abandoned by their parents or who have no parents, far exceeds the supply, Judge Victor Arnold of the Juvenile Court, told the United Press.

"We have hundreds of requests for children for adoption, some from the prominent families of Chicago," Arnold said. "So great is the desire of the childless mothers for children to satisfy the mother instinct that they are coming to New York and other cities for homeless waifs."

"Most of the families seeking children have been married many years, but have not been blessed with children of their own. The husbands have climbed the ladder of business success. The mothers have established themselves in the social world. But they both find their lives are empty and seek something upon which they can pour their affection and their success."

Recently the fairy wand which has changed the lives of waifs from drab institution walls to luxury and the promise of education was waived by three prominent families here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Heller brought from New York a baby boy whom they named John and made heir to their fortune. Heller is the senior member of the firm of Heller and Rose, diamond merchants.

Walter I. Schiff, banker and manufacturer, and Mrs. Schiff adopted a baby girl. Harry Taussig, wealthy tobacco dealer, adopted three children, including Marial, 4 months old.
